THE HUMBLE PETITION OF THE OLD ARRACK FARMERS SHEWETH.

That your petitioners were indebted to Iapa Muddalaree Choultry Conicoply in a very considerable sum̃, whereof there remains yet due, One hundred and fifty pagodas, for which he hath lately arrested and imprison'd your petitioners who upon their leaving the said Arrack Farm were considerably indebted to the Hon^{ble}. Company for which your Hon^{r}. was pleas'd to take their bond which they do propose honestly to discharge so soon as possible by their dilligence in business they can be able to raise it, which their present confinement doth Entirely prevent, also they are indebted to sundry Merchants, as Colloway Chittee, Sunca Raña, Ragg Chittee and Somadrew Conicopoly considerable sum̃s.

Now your Petitioners have no possible way of discharging these debts otherwise than by their honest industry also they have very large and numerous familys dependant on them who in these dear times are ready to perish with hunger being depriv'd of all manner of Support from your petitioners, who have no other dependance than on your Hon^rs. abundant goodness, and do therefore most humbly begg that you'l be pleas'd to grant their enlargement when they will endeavour honestly to discharge the Hon^ble. Companys debt and afterwards the rest of their Creditors it being otherwise impossible to be done.

Your Petitioners are under great disadvantages by reason of their confinement, and humbly begg your Hon^r. will be pleas'd to comply with their desire herein and your Petitioners as in duty bound will EVER PRAY.

TO THE HON^BLE. JOSEPH COLLET ESQ^R.
PRESID^T. & GOVERN^R. OF FFORT S^T. GEORGE COUNCIL.

HON^BLE. S^R. &C^A.

Having for sometime past observ'd by the generall books [that] Our Hon^ble. Masters expences have been greatly augmented since M^r. George Woolaston was made Steward it put me upon further enquiry by which I find myself oblig'd to represent the same to you, it appearing to be of too gross a nature to be pass'd over in silence, I have not yet had the perusall of his daily account of particulars from which possibly I might observe some things worth remarking, but beleive that what I am now going to recite and is collected from the Paymasters Acc^ts. in the body of which some part of his monthly expences are enter'd in gen^ll. and others in particular items will be sufficient to Alarm Yo^r. Hon^r. &c^a and excite you still to make a more thorô examination and therefore not to keep you in suspence with a long preamble I shall begin with the article of Charges Diet.

That I may put the Test of this upon a true and eligible foundation I shall compare M^r. Woolastons expence with that of other Standards in those times where I find the number of the Companys Covenanted Servants were most Equal, and this I observe to be between the Six months from May to November 1713 & in the same months in 1717, for from May 1713 to the last of October following, there were in the Service Senior and Junior Merchants, Factors, & Writers thirty four persons and from May 1717 to the last of October D^o. there were Senior & Junior Merchants, Factors and Writers thirty Six persons, but it is to be remark'd that even some of these did arrive this place upon the Europe Ships the 25^th. & 28^th. May the 5^th. of July and 5^th. of August in all nine persons, so that the consideration of this will fully [answer] to the Stating the number [of] Servants equall.

Now there[fore] to make it clearly appear what [this affair] of feeding a like number of Servants has been between [the] management of Mess^rs. Henry Spackman & George Wool[aston] Stewards I shall here incert the Six months expence as [before] mention'd under the article of Charges diet, including the monthly pay of the Stewards Servants Viz^t.

1713 Henry Spackman Steward					1717 George Woolaston Steward.
May ...	Pag^s.	202	—	—	May ...	Pag^s.	393	10	[—]
June ...		205	19	30	June ...		326	—	[—]
July ...		219	3	5	July ...		253	18	[6]
August ...		228	5	—	August ...		370	18	[6]
Septemb^r ...		170	14	—	Septemb^r ...		352	21	[...]
October ...		218	3	—	October ...		403	15	2
	Pag^s.	1243	8	35			2099	15	[20]
					deduct ..		1243	8	35
						Pag^s. ...	856	6	65

so that by deducting the Six months expence of 1713 from that of 1717, it appears that eight hundred fifty six pagodas, six fanams and Sixty five cash is the exceeding expence in 1717, which is one hundred forty two pagodas, twenty five fanams, ten cash extraordinary one month with another.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, JANUARY 1717-18——

The next article of allowances to the Gentlemen of Council and other married persons in the Paymasters acc^{ts}. and is there intermixt with the Stewards I speak to, that it might not be suppos'd to heighten the Stewards expence, 'tis paid a part by the Paymaster and does not come into the formers books.

The next head which falls into the Stewards books & enter'd in the Paymasters accounts is diet & stores laid in.

In this affair I shall compare the same six months expence as before in the year 1713 and the year 1717 Viz^{t}.

1713 May	...	Pag^{s}.	290	29	—	1717 May	...	Pag^{s}.	569	35	4[0]
June	...		299	22	—	June	...		471	12	—
July	...		240	1	—	July	...		477	16	40
August	...		330	25	—	August	...		555	3	—
September.			313	25	—	Septemb^{r}.			382	33	60
October	...		324	6	—	October	...		577	29	—
			[1799	—	—]				3034	21	60
								deduct	1799	—	—
								Pag^{s}.	1235	[21	60]

so that the difference in six months amounts to one thousand [two] hundred thirty five pagodas twenty one fanams sixty cash without taking notice of the long bill for Europe liquors & charg'd in the month of September 1717, and this difference taking one month with another will amount to Two hundred and five pagodas thirty three fanams and fifty cash ℔ month.

For a further explanation of the article Diet Stores laid [in] I shall conclude severall of the items that are placed under it [at] first in the aforecited Six months of 1713, I find expended Six Leaguers of Batavia Arrack, and eighty two and three quarter gallons of Goa, and by those of 1717 I observe six Leaguers of Batavia arrack, four hundred & Ten gallons of Goa, and three Hoggsheads of Treble distill'd arrack which is each month fifty four gallons and a half of Goa Arrack, and half a Hoggshead of Treble more than usual, nor is this all towards the expence in punch making, for I also see in the six months of 1713 only five hundred thirty seven pounds three quarters of Suggar Candy us'd, and in those of 1717 there is one thousand nine hundred Seventy five pounds, the difference One thousand four hundred thirty seven pounds and one quarter which is each month two hundred thirty nine pounds eight ounces extraord^{ry}. expence.

The next is Kismishes and Raisons which I put together as that they generally serve for the same use, in the months of 1713 there is four hundred and nineteen pounds charg'd, in those of 1717 Two thousand one hundred forty eight pounds, the difference of expence is One thousand Seven hundred twenty nine pounds which is [two hundred] eighty eight pounds one sixth ℔ month Almonds [in 1713 one] hundred fifty seven pounds and a half in 1717 Three [hundred] forty five pounds the difference is eighty eight pounds [which] is fourteen pounds two sixths a further expence ℔ [month] as to this article I find there was a frug[al] part us'd for [pa]st four months of Twenty five pounds each month [which] reasonably may be inferr'd to rise [from the scarcity . . .] for as soon as the Persia ship arr[ived] then the expence arises to one hundred & One hundred & [f . . .] pounds ℔ month whereas that of 1713 never rose in one [month] to more than Sixty pounds, and the medium of the other [. . .] about forty pounds. Pistaches there were none expended in [the] three first months in 1713 but in the three last One hundred fifty one pounds three quarters which $50\frac{3}{4}$ ^{lb} ℔ month or [. .] ℔ day. In the months of 1717 there was us'd seven hundred and ninety pounds which is 131 ^{lb} ℔ month or 4. $5\frac{3}{4}$ $^{lb.\ oz.}$ ℔ day which is two pounds eleven Ounces each day more than the former expence, Surat, & Bengall wheat the expence in [the] months of 1713 was $937\frac{3}{4}$ ^{mercalls} the charge of 1717 is 3168 ^{mercalls}, the difference is $2230\frac{1}{4}$ ^{mercalls} which is 371. $^{mercalls\ measures}$ 5 more than the former in each [month]. Fine & course rice that of 1713 is fine thirty nine Mercalls, & course three hundred & Sixty in 1717 fine rice one hundred thirty two Mercalls and three quarters, and Course three hundred forty seven, the difference of fine rice is $93\frac{1}{4}$ mercalls which is [15 . . .] mercalls more ℔ month than usual, in the course thirteen mercalls are sav'd but is no ways an equivalent to the great expence of the fine, Suggar fine and brown in the first article in 17[13] it was One thousand six hundred seventy four pounds, in the second three hundred thirty seven pounds and a half in 1717 fine three thousand five hundred seventy two pounds, and four hundred brown, the difference is One thousand eight hundred ninety eight pounds of fine, and Sixty two brown in the first the extraordinary expence is three hundred sixteen pounds two sixths in the latter ten pounds six ounces two thirds ℔ mensem.

Wax in [the months] of 1713 the expence was Twenty two maunds and a [half. In] 1717, fifty one maunds which is twenty eight and a [halfmore] than usual, and is for each month four maunds [& three] quarters.

Rosewater [in 1713] twenty eight flasks in 1717 fifty two flasks the difference [is] twenty six flasks which is four and two Sixths each [month] more than usual.

The next Article that I observe in the month of October 1717, is what expended in feeding Cattle &c^{a}. Viz^{t}.

Paddy . . . 659 Mercalls	Pag^{s}.	32	27 —
Milk Tower &c^{a}. for Cows		10	8 —
Tower, Gram &c^{a}. feeding Hoggs Capons &c^{a}. ...		23	21 —
To this I add the expence the Steward has given in and is charg'd under the head of Cattle for provision for the Cows &c^{a}. in the Stable		22	7 40
	Pag^{s}.	88	27 40

Tis very difficult to compare this with other accounts as I have done the former by reason I must descend into so many particular sorts of provision and calculate the number at the respective times to see how the expence agrees, therefore I shall in generall say I am apt to beleive there is as little good management for the Company in this article as I have found in those beforemention'd.

Firewood there is none charg'd under this Head in May and June 1713 but to make a true demonstration of the difference of expence I shall add the months of November and December for the same year in their stead Viz^{t}.

which is 16973 Sticks ℔ month more than the charge of 171[3] I am sensible there is a difference in the sorts of firewood but it is the Stewards buisness to have that which [would] burn to the best advantage, and if that was mind[ed I] am of opinion the Companys expence might be considerably lessen'd to what it is, these are the main articles that fall under Charges diet and diet stores laid in, in examining of which I have plainly demonstrated that it is not the price of things only have thus augmented the Companys Charge but either from mismanagement of the Steward, or his suffering the Servants under him, to wrong him, or from some other cause that's worse, but I also think it necessary before I leave [this] matter to say something of the prices of provisions &c[a]. because the foregoing will not always make up the difference of mony and to begin I am inform'd of the Steward that the following Stores us'd to be bought at proper seasons of the year Viz[t].

of which M[r]. Woolaston bought a considerable part and I observe 'tis charg'd to the Company in the month of June at pag[s]. Sev[enty] two ℔ garse, in the following months it increases to eighty pagodas and in October 'tis charg'd at One hundred.

Now 'tis well known that the Paymaster advances the Steward mony as he has occasion for it, wherefore I am a Stranger to any plea he can have for this sort of management and it appears from what has been said that M[r]. Woolastons charges amounts to (in the ordinary Charge of diet) in six months time more than M[r]. Spackmans the sum of Two thous[d]. ninety one pagodas twenty eight fanams and forty five Cash which calculated for the year is four thousand one hundred and eighty three pagodas twenty one fanams and Ten Cash.

It will also be necessary to observe the great Sums that have been expended on sundry feasting days Viz[t].

July 24[th]. the publick feast at the Garden upon the proclamation of King ffurruckseers Phirmaund for all the Inhabitants in generall, Europeans, Portugueze, Moors & Armenians, all the Millitary and Gunroom Crew particulars as ℔ Stewards Account is Pag[s]. 896.31.20.

September 23[d]. the publick feast at Trivitore for all the European inhabitants & Soldiers that attended the Hon[ble]. Govern[r]. to proclaim King ffurruckseers Phirmaund as ℔ Stewards Account Pag[s]. 566.35·20.

Now I observe that the feast which was made for the Proclamation of the Peace in Jan[ry]. 1713/14 when the whole Town as I am inform'd was invited except the Moors and Armenians as on the 24[th] July, that this feast is charg'd in Henry Spackmans Accounts at no more than pag[s]. One hundred and Seventeen, twenty seven fanams and Twe[nty] Cash, so that there is a vast disproportion between them and as to that part of feasting the Military I find [that] when the Companys consisted of four hundred and fifty [sold[rs].] the whole charge never came to more than eighteen or nineteen Pagodas and the Gunners when One hundred & fifty two persons from four to five pagodas, and that in September & October 1713 the diet of Thirty six Soldiers at Egmore came to no more than thirty one pagodas thirty fanams the first month and thirty four pagodas eight fanams the second, which is not one pagoda each man, and the present Steward has charg'd in the month of October for the provision of Sixty seven soldiers lodg'd at Egmore as ℔ his note pag^{s}. One hundred thirty six twenty seven fanams and forty Cash, which is two pagodas one fanam six Cash for each man ℔ month and is a very large allowance for the diet of a Soldier which as commonly practic'd among them is from Forty to fifty fanams ℔ month, and it is to be noted besides this extraordinary charge to the Company they have their monthly pay paid them.

To conclude in my opinion there is hardly an article in this Gentleman's accounts but what will bear some retrenchment as will evidently appear to your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. when you come to peruse them with strictness, and I leave it to your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. to direct what is necessary to be done in this case, and to prescribe proper remedys to prevent such management for the future being

GOVR. OF FFORT ST. GEORGE &CA. COUNCIL.

HONBLE. SR. &CA.

Having lately view'd the remains of the timber & plank I find there is a considerable quantity (especially among the plank) useless or worth little more than firewood, which is the refuse of what have been bought for many years past, and I suppose the condition of it was not heretofore reported, because it lay mix'd and cover'd from the eye, and 'twould not have been a small charge to have over hauld it all, but there being so little to be found at present fit for use that it appears that account upon the books proves only imaginary as to the mony, and so it will happen in future in proportion to the time for the sellers thô it is for their advantage to parcell it out and sort it as equal as they can yet will there be a great deal of difference in any considerable quantitys, more particularly in small plank or sheathing boards, because the Seller will put that sort off one with another, there being many times some of them split either by Carriage or by the Sun and others full of Knot holes, and the Carpenters and those employ'd about the buildings will always take the best and tell you the others won't serve for their purpose, and this (as before cited) has been the case from time to time that has occasion'd so many shreds and so much useless stuff for the disposall of which I humbly put under your Honr. &cas. direction being

Your obedt. hum.dle Servt.
RANDLL. FFOWKE.

To the HONBLE. JOSEPH COLLET ESQR.
PRESIDT. & GOVERNR OF FFORT ST. GEORGE &CA. COUNCIL.

HONBLE. SRS. &CA.

In obedience to your Honr. &cas. commands I have thôroly perus'd Mr. Thomas ffredericks charge given against me in Consultation of the 20th. January, and in answer to which I begg leave to make the following replys, and first Mr. Frederick having compar'd six months accounts of the year 1713 with six months accounts of this present year 1717 it being so long before my time that I am wholly unacquainted with what the expences might be then, only I can remember there was no suppers allow'd the Companys Servants excepting milk, salt fish, and rice which almost half the expence cut off and no more than nine dishes of victualls allow'd for dinner and now there is fifteen dishes both for dinner and supper but comparing six months expence of the year 1716 with six of the same months of this present year 1717 allowing the dearness of provisions &cs. as your Honr. &cs. may please to observe by the accompanying lists, I find the difference to be but six hundred and six pagodas, thirty fanams for the six months without allowing any thing for the provision of Twelve Companys Servants more than there were in the year 1716 as will appear by the accompanying lists so that allowing Seven pagodas ℔ month for each Gentlemans diet I find the difference to be but three hundred & seven pagodas Seventeen fanams and seven Cash for the six months as your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. may please to observe by the following account.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, FEBRUARY 1717-18——

1716 July	...	548.24.60	1717 July	...	730. 34.[40]
Augst	...	563.16	Augst	...	925. 21.[60]
Septemb^{r}	...	597.16.40	Septem^{r}	...	735. 22.[20]
Octob^{r}	...	580.—.60	October	...	981. [8. 20]
Novemb^{r}	...	569.—.24	Novem^{r}	...	778.[13. —]

		3538.13.4			495[2.24.11
difference in y^{e}. Six mo^{s}.		1414.11.7

now deduct the difference of the prises of provisions which amounts to One hundred and one pagodas, five fanams ℔ month the difference in six months is six hundred and six pagodas Thirty fanams ... ... 606 30 —

And add eighty four pagodas ℔ month for the twelve Companys Servants more than there were in the six months 1716 it amounts to in Six months ... ... 500 — —

1106. 30. —

which Sums being deducted from One thousand four hundred and fourteen pagodas, eleven fanams and Seven Cash the difference in Six months is 307. 17. 7

so that there is fifty one pagodas, eight fanams and eight Cash ℔ month a larger expence than in the year 1716.

As to the articles of Goa Arrack Batavia Arrack Suggar, Suggar Candy, Kismisses &c^{a}. without doubt there must be considerable quantitys more expended when there is more Companys Servants, but I find there is not so much difference in the quantitys of any of them between the Six months expence of the year 1716 and the year 1717 as what M^{r}. ffrederick takes notice of excepting the trible distill'd Goa Arrack the reason being Govern^{r}. Harrison had a large quantity of his own, and did not charge the Company with what was expended.

M^{r}. ffrederick observes that in the months of 1713 there was but five hundred thirty seven pound three quarters of suggar candy us'd and in the months of 1717, there was nineteen hundred and ten pound us'd, the difference he makes to be Thirteen hundred Seventy four pound and a quarter in the six months but I find in the months of 1716 there was expended thirteen hundred twenty seven pound so that the difference is about three pound and one eight ℔ diem a larger expence which M^{r}. ffrederick incerts to be seven pound and a half ℔ day larger expence than usual.

Fine Suggar he says was expended in the Six months of 1713 Sixteen hundred and Seventy four pound and in the months of 1717 three thousand six hundred and thirty four pound but I find in the months of 1716 to be expended Two thousand two hundred and Seventy pound, so that instead of its being eleven pound and a quarter ℔ day a larger expence as M^{r}. ffrederick alledges it is but Seven pound and a half, and as for the brown Suggar there is but a difference of Ten pound six Ounces ℔ month more expence which was occasion'd by making more beer than usual.

Kismasses and Raisons he takes notice to be expended in the months of 1713 but four hundred and nineteen pound and in the months of 1717 he observes there were two thousand one hundred and forty eight pound difference he makes to be nine pound and half ℔ day a larger expence, but I find in the months of 1716 to have been expended One thousand and thirty Six pound, so that the difference is no more than five and three Sixteenths instead of nine and a half as M[r]. ffrederick alledges.

Goa Arrack he observes to have been expended in the months of 1713 but eighty two gallons and three quarters and Six leaguers of Batavia arrack and in the months of 1717 Six Leaguers of Batavia arrack and four hundred and ten gallons of Goa Arrack to which I answer that the punch was formerly made of Batavia arrack for the Companys Serv[ts]. and is now made of Goa arrack the expence of which is eight bottles ℔ day or Sixty gallons ℔ month, and the reasons why the same quantity of Batavia Arrack was us'd, are that for the Six months past there has been severall occasions to dram the Millitary as when partys have been sent out and return'd and the Govern[rs]. keeping a Standing guard at the Garden.

Almonds M[r]. ffrederick observes were us'd in the [months] of 1713 but two hundred and fifty seven pound and a half a[nd in] the months of 1717 was us'd three hundred and forty five [pounds] and I find in the months of 1716 there was us'd Four [hun[d]. &] seventy two pound so that instead of enlarging the expence in this article as M[r]. ffrederick asserts to fourteen pound ℔ month I have lessend Twenty one pound ℔ month.

Suratt and Bengall wheat he mentions to have been expended in the months of 1713 mercalls Nine hundred thirty seven and three quarters, and in the months of 1717 mercalls Two thousand eight hundred thirty nine and three quarters difference he makes to be three hundred Seventy one mercalls ℔ month, but I find in the months of 1716 to have been expended mercalls fourteen hundred and thirty which makes the difference to be Two hundred thirty five mercalls ℔ month instead of three hundred and Seventy one mercalls as M[r]. ffrederick alledges.

Wax he observes to have been spent in the months of 1713 maunds Twenty two and a half and in the months of 1717 Fifty one maunds difference he makes to be four maund and three quarters ℔ month, but I observe in the months 1716 there were expended thirty eight maunds and a half which makes the difference to be about Two maunds and a quarter ℔ month instead of four maunds and three quarters, which expence is occasion'd by the Gentlemen writing at nights in the Offices, and the Govern[rs]. being commonly at the Garden.

Rosewater he mentions to have been expended in the months of 1713 flasks Twenty eight and in the months of 1717 flasks fifty two which he says is flasks four and two sixths ℔ month larger expence, but I find in the months of 1716 to have been expended thirty seven flasks so that the difference is no more than two flasks and a half ℔ month instead of four flasks and two sixths as M[r]. ffrederick observes.

The next article he takes notice of is the Charges of Cattle to which I answer that as we have had a very dry season and no grass upon the Island or elsewhere for the Cattle to feed on, as usual I have been oblig'd to feed them [all] upon dry meet.

Firewood M[r]. Frederick observes to have been expended in the months of 1713 Sticks One hundred ninety four thousand one hundred and Sixty and in the months of 1717 sticks Two hundred ninety six thousand, the difference he says is seventeen thousand sticks ℔ month but I observe that in the months of 1716 there was two hundred eighty three thousand sticks expended so that the difference instead of being Seventeen thousand sticks ℔ month a larger expence is no more than two thousand one hundred sixty six sticks.

As to the Surat wheat being sold at Outcry for pagodas forty five to fifty ℔ garse and that I charg'd at Seventy pag[s]. the month after, I answer your Hon[r]. &c[a]. knows I could not buy it on the Companys Account without an order of Consultation, and I observe M[r]. ffrederick says he is a stranger to any plea I can have for this sort of management his reasons being I am advanc'd mony by the Paymaster as I have occasion for it, but he may plainly see in all my months accounts, that I am advanc'd no more than Buzar expences which is about Pag[s].three hundred ℔ month and further I assure your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. that wheat I charg'd then at Seventy pagodas ℔ garse, cost me from ninety to One hundred and twenty pagodas ℔ garse the year before which I can prove by the Gentlemens notes I have by me, and I had not charg^{d}. it at Seventy pagodas ℔ garse had not it been the market price the month after.

As to the charges of the festivall days as upon King ffurruckseers Phirmaund being proclaim'd, the expence of the Moors and Armenians were considerably greater than the Europeans, and I beleive the Hon^{ble}. Govern^{r}. can remember that I came severall times to him that day and likewise the day before, and acquainted him what extravagant demands they made, and they also carry'd away most of the China ware and other utensils they borrowed to dress their victualls with and M^{r}. ffrederick forgets to take notice that there were ninety pagodas of that days expence charg'd for arrack sent on board the Europe Ships that lay in the road, likewise a feast for the three Companys of Soldiers and Gunners charg'd in that days expence, and in answer to his comparing King Georges proclamation day (which he says amounted to no more than One hundred and seventeen pagodas, twenty seven fanams with that days expence) I find there was no more than fifty seven dishes of victualls dress'd for dinner and seventeen dishes fresh dress'd for supper, and that day there was Two hundred and four dishes dress'd for dinner and fifty eight fresh dress'd for Supper so that I leave it to your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. to judge whether the expence of the two days can be compar'd together, and as to the feast at Trivitore amounting to pag^{s}. five hundred Sixty Six, thirty one fanams and twenty cash there was one hundred pagodas charg'd out of it for Sixty seven Soldiers diet at Egmore, and there was one hundred Seventy three dishes of victualls dress'd, besides two entertainments made that month for the Gentlemen of Council &c^{a}. which expence was charg'd under that head, and I leave it to your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. to judge whether or no there must not be a great deal of difference in the expence between an entertainment being made here and at Trivitore, and what large embezlements which cannot possibly be avoided are made at such a time besides there was provision made for the partys of men that went thither the day before and also that day and for the party that went to Wasanawarra besides a great charge of Cooley hire for carrying provisions &c^{a}. from place to place all which when your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. consider I hope youl not think it an extravagant charge.

M^{r}. ffrederick observes that when there were but Four hundred and fifty men in the Military the charge feasting them amounted to eighteen or nineteen pagodas, to which I answer there is now about five hundred men, and that they us'd to have only a dinner, they have both dinner and supper and punch at both meals, and as I us'd formerly to buy limejuice at six fanams ℔ gallon I was forc'd then to pay eighteen fanams ℔ gallon all which occasiond the difference.

My reasons why Sixty seven soldiers diet at Egmore amounted to One hundred thirty Six pagodas, twenty seven fanams and Forty Cash ℔ month are as follows, first because the Men were allow'd two drams ℔ diem each the expence of which was Sixteen bottles ℔ day which amounted to one Leaguer of arrack ℔ month so that forty Pagodas taken from One hundred thirty six there remains but ninety six pagodas for the sixty seven mens diet which at the rate of fifty fanams ℔ month for each mans diet as M^{r}. ffrederick allows it amounts to ninety three pagodas, two fanams, secondly the charge of Cooley hire was three fanams ℔ day to carry their victualls thither.

And now having answerd to every article mention'd in M^{r}. ffredericks charge that your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. may have a more particular view of my proceedings, I humbly begg the favour your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. will appoint any two Gentlemen of Council to inspect into any one or more of the six months accounts I have compar'd (which are much larger than the foregoing six months, and to examine every particular and that they may report whether I have wrong'd my Hon^{ble}. Masters as M^{r}. ffrederick seems to alledge, and if I can prove my proceedings warrantable I hope your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. will do me justice and clear me to my Hon^{ble}. Masters, and that your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. may have a plainer demonstration that it is the making Suppers and keeping a better table then was kept in the year 1713, I will oblige myself if your Hon[r]. &c[a]. will be pleas'd to order there shall be no more suppers dress'd, and the same number of dishes dress'd for dinner to lessen the expence One hundred and fifty pagodas ℔ month, and because M[r]. ffrederick blames my management and commends M[r]. Spackmans, if your Hon.[r] &c[a]. will be pleas'd to allow me the difference in the prizes of provisions bet[ween] the year 1713 and this present year and allow no supp[ers] I will oblige myself to maintain the table with the same number of Companys Servants for fifty pag.[s] ℔ month less expence then he ever did. I am with the greatest respect

They further depose that the prisoner and the Woman were talking pleasantly together; and that there was not any sign of anger or mallice between them but that he happening to let a Fart she jocularly told him that was like a parriar on which he having the pistoll in his hand said he would Shoot her, and immediately the pistoll went off and shot her thrô the head, he having taken up another of the Guards pistolls instead of his own which were unloaded the charg'd pistolls having been left there by one of the Horsekeepers, they add that on the pistolls going off he immediately leapt off the Cott and Cry'd Lord what have I done, they farther depose that James Dixon lay on a Cott between that which the prisoner lay on, and that on which the Woman sate.

In obedience to your Hon^{r}. &c^{as}. commands I have examin'd the Vizagapatam Cash Accounts and find them right cast [up but] am to represent to you that notwithstanding you orderd the [Cheif &c^{a}.] Council in the 3^{d}. paragraph of your letter of the 17th. of May last to keep their accounts in small cash reckoning eighty to every fanam instead of Six great Cash as formerly, they have not regarded that order, I also observe that their Cash entrys are not at all expressive Viz^{t}.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, MARCH 1717-18—

To the Hon^ble. Joseph Collet Esq^r.

Presid^t. & Gov^r. of ffort S^t. George &c^a. Councill.

Hon^ble. S^rs. &c^a.

Your Hon^r. &c^a. having been pleas'd to appoint Us to inspect and examine the Stewards accounts in respect to M^r. ffredericks charge, We shall as briefly and plainly as possible now lay before you what we have to offer thereupon.

First M^r. ffrederick having compar'd six months acc^ts. of the Stewards expence when M^r. Spackman was Steward from the first of May to the ult^o. October 1713 with six of the same months of this present year 1717 under the management of M^r. Woolaston to shew the difference of the expence and whereby there doth appear to be a large increase more than at that time, when as he observes the Companys Servants were most equall in number which he setts forth in his charge and

Secondly he adds further that the two festivall days upon a proclamation of King ffurruckseers phirmaund and another feast at Trivitore upon the like occasion amounts to a much more extraordinary Charge than a feast which was made in January 1713/14 for proclamation of the peace made in Europe, besides some extraordinary expence made at Egmore for the provision of Sixty seven Soldiers lodg'd there and feasting the Millitary at a more than usual charge to all which the Steward answers

First he is wholy unacquainted with the expence which happend in the time quoted by M^r. ffrederick before he was Steward, only remembers that there were no suppers then allow'd the Companys Servants excepting milk salt fish and rice, which he accounts near half the expence lessen'd thereby, and only nine dishes of Victualls for dinner whereas there is since a much larger allowance being fifteen dishes both for dinner and Supper.

Secondly as to the charge of the Festivall days upon proclaiming King Furruckseers phirmaund the expence of entertaining the Moors and Armenians were considerably greater than if only Europeans had been invited to it besides severall embezlements of China ware and other utensils borrow'd to dress their victualls which they carry'd away and were lost, but moreover three Companys of Soldiers and all the Gunroom Crew were feasted, and arrack to the amount of ninety pagodas sent on board the Europe Ship[s] in the road which is all included in that days expence.

At Trivitore which is so great a distance must occasion a much greater expence, and unavoidable embezlements will happen besides the charge of Cooley hire &c^a. and in the amount of the charge of that days feast is included one hundred pagodas for Sixty seven Soldiers diet at Egmore two entertainments besides made for the Gentlemen of Council &c^a. that month, and provisions for the large party of Soldiers that were at Trivitore all that day [and] the day before as also at Assarrawarra, expences at Egmore for provision for Sixty seven Soldiers will not am^t. to above fifty fanams ℔ month each besides the allowance of arrack given them being each man a dram twice a day amounts to a Leager of arrack ℔ month which is Forty pagodas, and in the Millitary there was at that time quoted by M^r. ffrederick but Four hundred and fifty whereas there is now five hundred, and they us'd to have a dinner only given them and now they have both dinner & supper and punch more than usual, and he is oblig'd to pay eighteen fanams a gallon for the Limejuice which was usually bought before at Six fanams ℔ gallon.

Thirdly the prices of provisions and Stores according to his List deliver'd your Hon^r. &c^a. being much dearer hath greatly contributed to augment his expence.

Fourthly that the number of Companys Servants are increas'd, and more by Twelve persons than there were in the Six months from the first of July to the Ult^o. December of the year 1716.

Having carefully compar'd and examin'd the severall items in M^r. ffredericks report and the Stewards answer we observe [a line lost].

——FORT ST. GEORGE, MARCH 1717-18——

As to the severall articles of Goa Arrack, Batavia arrack and other stores, the Steward says he doth not find so much difference in the quantity expended of any of them between six months expence of the year 1716 and the year 1717, as what is alledgd by Mr. ffrederick whereas we do not find Mr. ffrederick alledges any such thing, by his report he makes a great differ[ence] in the expence of the severall stores between the year 1713 and 1717, which is right, and the Steward by comparing as he has done Six months of the year 1716 a quite different time with Six months of the year 1717 may well find the difference he men[tioned] but ought not to say it is what Mr. ffrederick alledges. The feasts at the Garden and at Trivitore both upon the occasion of proclaiming King ffurruckseers phirmaund Mr. ffrederick saith amounts to as much greater charge than a Feast made in January 1713/14 for the proclaiming of a peace made in Europe, which the Steward in his answer has mistaken for another Feast on the proclamation of King George, and here we must take notice that the charge of this Feast is according to Mr. ffredericks report no more than One hundred and Seventy pagodas Twenty Seven fanams but we cannot but think [he] is mistaken in the amount of it, and cannot be satisfied unless we could have the Stewards accounts of that time which are not forthcoming, so much as Mr. ffrederick reports is charg'd in the Paymasters books for the feast as falls under the head of Charges extraordinary, but we suppose there might be a further expence on that occasion which doth not appear on the Paymasters books, as to the difference in the prizes of his provisions and Stores as he makes out by his List disag[reeing] with his monthly account, by which it appears they were not at the same prizes as are set down in his List.

He is likewise mistaken as appears by the Sallary Lists in what he saith of the increase of the number of the Companys Servants between the Six months of the year 171[6] and 1717 cited in his answer.

We are sorry upon this occasion to acquaint your Honr. &ca. that the acct. of the former Steward Mr. Spackman which ought to have been deliver'd into the Accomptants Office are lost and embezled some way or other wherefore we cannot strictly examine into the difference of the expence as otherwise we should have been able to do.

But upon the whole we must observe allowing all the reasons the Steward has given for the justifying himself in so large an increase of the expences there remains nevertheless a considerable difference between the foregoing year 1716 and this of 1717 as himself hath taken it for Six months from the first of July to the ulto. of December 1716 he makes the expence then to amount to Pags. 3538–13–4 and for the same months Anno 1717	4952	24	11

whereby it appears to have increas'd for 6 mos. ...	1414	11	7

And to shew the reasonableness of this expence he makes an account of the difference in the prizes of provisions and stores before mention'd in that space of time to amount to Pagodas One hundred and one and five fanams upon his monthly account which for the Six months is ... ... 606 30 —

And adds to it pags. eighty four ℔ month for Twelve Companys Servants which he accts. @ pags Seven ℔ month each for Six months	500	—	—

by this means he brings the difference which is Fourteen hundred and fourteen pags. eleven fanams and Seven Cash to be Pags. Three hundred and Seven, seventeen fanams and Seven Cash a larger expence for the Six months of the year 1717 than Six months of the year 1716 both articles of pags. Six hundred & Six and thirty fanams being One hundred and one pags. five fanams ℔ month difference in the prizes of provisions and of Five hundred pagodas which is pags. eighty four ℔ month allowance for increase of the number of Companys Servants are explained as taken from Mr. ffrederick as followeth.

Report of the difference of prizes of Provisions be[tw]een the year 1716 and this Present 1717 deliver'd in by Mr. George Woollaston Steward which is founded on the prizes actually charg'd in his acc[t]s for the time abovemention'd viz[t].

——FORT ST. GEORGE, MARCH 1717-18——

By the foregoing account it appears the difference in [the] prizes of provisions and stores cannot amount to Pag^{s}. One hundred and one, and five fanams which he hath charged in his List being no more than Sixty Six pagodas, thirty two fanams, thirteen Cash and five sixths ℔ month for Six-months Allowing him the large article of Fourty pagodas Sixteen fanams for beef &c^{a}. ...	401 13 3
And by the Sallary Lists of the Comp^{as}. Covenanted Servants we take notice from March to Septemb^{r}. 1716 there were twenty nine persons and in 1717 there were no more than thirty Six which makes y^{e}. difference but Seven persons instead of Twelve asserted by the Steward, and [of those] Seven M^{r}. Richardson, M^{r}. Moll, M^{r}. Perry [and M^{r}.] Dobyns besides Mess^{rs}. Harris & Sanderson [. . .] place much about the same time wh[...] allow three Companys Servants for the Six [months] only @ Twenty one pagodas ℔ month as he [ha]th at Seven pag^{s}. which should be Six pagodas	126 – –
Pag^{s}.	527 13 3
And allowing these Two articles which he makes to be pag^{s}. Eleven hundred & Six, and thirty fanams plainly appears can be no more than pagodas Five hundred Twenty seven, thirteen fanams and three Cash which deducted from 1414–11–7 makes difference in the expence of Six months more than it amounted to in 1716	886 34 4
And as M^{r}. ffrederick has taken it for Six months of the year 1713 under M^{r}. Spackmans managem^{t}. it exceeds pag^{s}.	2091 28 45

Most of the articles mention'd in his List might happen to rise to higher price than usual but we cannot rightly understand what should occasion such a dear price as Pag^{s}. 3½ ℔ ⊖ for beef except a time of Famine.

Another article which next falls under our notice is the Surrat wheat of which by the Accomptants report there was some [quantity] sold here out of the ships in Aprill, May& June last at Forty five to Fifty pagodes ℔ garse and yet there is [charged] in Stewards Accounts soon afterwards from Seventy two [to] eighty and one hundred pagodas ℔ garse for all the wheat [which] was expended, the Steward by his answer doth not think [it un] warrantable in him to buy any large quantity of stores of [any] kind without an order from Your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. and in that case there must be some allowance always made for loss by waste in many kind of Stores under the best care. We think it would be unbecoming us to prescribe any rules for reducing the expence only begg leave in duty to offer Our opinion that we think the most necessary means of doing it may be to buy in all needful stores at the cheapest time of the year, according to a yearly List of demands to be given by the Steward, and that he may receive monthly what may be sufficient for the expence out of your Warehouse or Storehouse as shall seem to you most convenient which we submit to the pleasure of this Honourable Board and are with due respect

COPY OF A CONSULTATION HELD THIS 8TH. DAY OF APRIL 1718 BY THE WORSPLL. FFRANCIS HASTINGS ESQR. DEPTY. GOVR. &CA. COUNCIL OF FFORT ST. DAVID.

The Deptv. Governr. acquaints the Board with some rude and insolent behaviour in Mr. Joseph Houghton in the following manner.

That having a complaint yesterday about five in the afternoon of his seizing upon Narrapa the Compas. Cheif Dubash and making him a prisoner in a godown at the Companys garden, he sent for him up stairs and ask'd him how he dar'd to usurp such a power in defyance to the Government in his own apartment, to which he answer'd that it was the Company's garden and he had seiz'd upon him for eleven hundred pagodas he ow'd him, and very saucily added that he should not go till he had receiv'd it because he was going to run away. The Deptv. Governr. then told him that he should have made his application to him or the Council that were setting that morning before he proceeded in such an unwarrantable a manner and demanded the persons names that rais'd the report so much to the loss of the Dubashes Credit to which Mr. Houghton would give no answer, but in a very surly manner said he himself was Cheif Justice to which the Deptv. Governr. told him that he could not act in his own cause, and that he knew very well as one of the Justices of the Choultry he had no power to take cognizance of any buisness that exceeded Twenty pagodas which was one of the standing orders made by the Honble. President and Council when here, to which he immediately reply'd that that was the most scandalous order that ever was made which oblig'd the Deptv. Governr. to call a Consultation but after some more discourse promising Mr. Houghton that the Dubash should be forthcoming he dismiss'd him seemingly satisfy'd, and order'd the Dubash to give what security could be reasonable desir'd, besides the obligation of Kittee Narrans for Pags. Three thousand five hundred he sent for Jewells to the amount of Fifteen hundred pagodas, but that likewise would not satisfie him, and therefore he offerd Shaddashaverow a very substantiall man security to pay the mony in three days and he refusing that, Ershepa a Conicoply (whom Mr. Houghton has formerly thought better to be trusted than any man in the place) offered his bond for the mony, but nothing would prevail with him to release the Dubash, of which the Deptv. Governr. did not know till coming to supper, and after he had heard what fair offers had been made by Narrapa, he found Mr. Houghton, Obstinate, perverse and mallicious having persevered in abusing the Deptv. Governrs. power endeavouring to [seek] the Dubashes ruin by sinking his Credit in the place. He sent Capt. Morgan to confine him to the Secretarys room (till this Consultation could be call'd) to whom he us'd very insolent expressions and with great contempt question'd the Deptv. Governrs. authority that he could not confine him without the Councils consent, which he urg'd was conformable to the Companys orders.

Whereupon Narrapa preferrs a petition setting forth the abuses offer'd him by Mr. Houghton which being debated at the Board and he present could not deny but that he had stop'd him and forc'd him to his House, and that he said he should not stirr out till he had paid him his mony upon which the Dubash (he owns) desir'd he would go to the garden where he would give him security or satisfie his demands, and in order thereto produc'd Jewells to the amount of Fifteen or sixteen hundred pagodas with which he said he was not satisfied nor with the security he propos'd (though substantiall men) and we find after getting him into a godown in the Company's garden he used threats and drew a sword upon him, pulling his gold shackles off from his hands. The Dep^{ty}. Govern^{r}. having given in the above report of his very abusive and indecent language which tends to the subversion of Government To the truth of which the Dep^{ty}. Govern^{r}. offers to attest on oath, so that all matters consider'd We find M^{r}. Houghton guilty of the crimes and misdemeanours alledg'd against him. Tis therefore agreed he be continu'd a prisoner in the Fort till the orders of the Presid^{t}. & Council (whose characters are likewise concernd) be known and that a copy of the Petition be forwarded in order thereto.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, APRIL 1718—

TO THE HONBLE. JOSEPH COLLET ESQR.
PRESIDT. & GOVERNR. OF FORT ST. GEORGE &CA. COUNCIL.

HONBLE. SR. &CA.

We being appointed by this Board pursuant to an order of Council of the 14th. Inst. to view the Chinam that was laid into Store by the late Paymaster Mr. Thos. Cooke and said to be spoilt and useless on the Honble. Compas. buildgs. now in hand and having accordingly view'd the same do report to Your Honr. &ca. that we found lodgd in severall places the quantity of Seventeen thousand five hundred parras as by the list hereafter mention'd, and deliverd Us by the persons appointed by the late Paymaster to register the same and is as follows.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, APRIL 1718——

No. 1. 3000 Which have been lodg'd there eight months, We are of opinion this might have been tolerable at first but by its being kept a great while in powder without being mix'd up which is the way (as some of us know by experience) to preserve it the strength thereof is quite lost and is now of no better service to the Company than by work^{g}. it up in the walls of the buildings instead of Clay and sand.

No. 2. 3000 This has been laid up these nine months t'is very bad and useless in the Hon^{ble}. Companys buildings.

No. 3. 5000 This parcel has been bought in Six months t'is unfit for plaistering or Terrassing and only fit to be us'd as number one.

No. 4. 6500 Have been bought in store Ten months and now fitting for little or no use.

In this survey having try'd all the parcells We are of opinion it is not altogether the long time it has been laid up in powder and not mixing it fit for present use to preserve it that has render'd it thus useless, but that most of it was at first mix'd with ashes and other dirt.

We must also begg leave to represent to you that the Custom till of late years was to buy the Chinam in stone when laid in store, and beat into powder as there was occasion for it, which so manag'd did not loose in strength as that which has since been bought in the Country in powder, and gave opportunitys to the sellers to mix ashes and dirt with it.

Besides the quantity that is before express'd there has been of this same sort four thousand parras us'd since the Present Paymaster came to the employ, and being expended on the new buildings in the Fort upon the late rain plainly discover'd the abuse, for the Terrasing made with it could not bear the rain that fell by which they were much damag'd and occasion'd his enquiry into the affair and complaint to the Board which otherwise he might not have been appriz'd of.

Upon this survey we have also learnt from the Surveyor of the Buildings and the Bricklayers employ'd in the Companys Service that five thousand parras would be sufficient to compleat the chinaming of the buildings design'd in the Fort, so that we are surpriz'd to find such large quantitys laid up.

The Surveyor of the buildings also acquaints Us that sufficient quantitys of Chinam may be had daily for carrying on and compleating the buildings in hand so that there is no manner of occasion for the bad in store wherefore we leave it to your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. to consider the best way of disposing of it to prevent the whole loss falling on the Company.

We doubt not but Your Hon^{r}. &c^{a}. upon a full enquiry will find there has been some practices us'd in this affair as yet unknown to you, but we must referr the whole to your Hon^{r}. &c^{as}. more serious consideration and are

The two last Consultations being read in order to be sign'd Mr. ffrederick objected that there was not a true account given of what had pass'd at the Board relating to the Toddy Licence.

The Two last Consultations being read in order to be sign'd Mr. ffrederick objected that there was not a true account given of what had pass'd at the Board relating to the Toddy Licence, the President ask'd the opinion of the rest of the Gentlemen, who all agreed that that affair was fairly and truly recited in the Consultations. Mr. ffrederick insisted that severall things which he had said were omitted and that he would give in his reasons for not signing, the President reply'd that he had not indeed taken notice of Mr. ffredericks indecent language and behaviour but since he thought fit to revive the occasion the Board should now be reminded of it, That in the first place Mr. ffrederick had egregiously trifled with the President and the whole Board in having propos'd more than an equivalent in taking off the Toddy licence and declaring that the people would be glad to be eas'd of the burthen on those terms in one Consultation, and in the next reclaiming all he had said about an equivalent.

Mr. Frederick rudely insists of [having] the Toddy Farm calld in.

Secondly that he had affronted the whole Board in his expressions and the manner of his behaviour the last Consultation particularly that when the Presidt. propos'd to consider further of the matter, Mr. ffrederick rudely insisted of having the question put for calling in the Toddy farm imediately, and upon the Presidents refusing to do it he threatned to deliver in a remonstrance and us'd this expression (or words to this purpose) I see which way things are going.

Mr. Frederick is orderd to withdraw which he did accordingly.

The President having proceeded thus farr requir'd of Mr. ffrederick to explain the last sentence which he not doing satisfactorily nor making any excuse for his behaviour the President told the Board that since Mr. ffrederick did not seem to think himself guilty of any fault he must desire their opinions and in order to it put to the vote whether Mr. ffrederick should be orderd to withdraw which was unanimously Agreed to and Mr. ffrederick withdrew accordingly.

Upon which it was unanimously resolv'd as follows.

The President told the Gentlemen that they were all present when the matter in debate was transacted and that he therefore desir'd them to speak their minds freely on the occasion, which being done, it was unanimously resolv'd as follows.

That Mr. Frederick be call'd in and reprimanded by the Presidt. & That he be oblig'd to begg pardon of the Board.

FIRST that Mr. ffrederick be call'd in and reprimanded by the President for his indecent expressions and behaviour the last Consultation.

SECONDLY that Mr. ffrederick be oblig'd to begg pardon of the Board for his offence.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, APRIL 1718——

Mr. ffrederick being call'd in, was reprimanded by the President, and begg'd pardon of the Board according to order.

Mr. Frederick being call'd in was reprimanded by ye. Presidt. and beggd pardon.

The President made his report concerning the Chinam affair as follows.

According to my promise last Consultation I have together with Mr. Legg examin'd into the Chinam affair now under consideration, and find that there is on hand about Seventeen thousand five hundred parras of Chinam of different degrees of goodness thô none so good as it ought to be, [the] value of this quantity as it stands in the Companys book[s] is Pags. Twelve hundred and Fifty.

The Presidt. makes his report of the Chinam affair.

On enquiry how farr this Chinam may be serviceable in the buildings, We were inform'd by the Master workman that the whole quantity taken together was fully equall for use to half that quantity of the best Chinam, so that the loss in value upon the Chinam on hand amounts to half the sum abovemention'd which is Pags. Six hundred and Twenty five.

The deficiency in goodness arrises partly from the Chinam having lain so long on hand after it was slack'd and partly from a Fraud in the provider a great deal of it being mix'd with ashes and dirt.

The deficiency in goodness of the Chinam arrises partly by its having lain by for a long time.

We find further that a practice has been introduc'd which has doubtless given occasion to this corruption that the Person who provides the Chinam has paid the Paymaster Ten ℔ Cent on what he has order'd, and five ℔ Cent to the Paymasters Dubash, and five ℔ Cent to the Paymasters Conicoply and five ℔ Cent more was shar'd among the under people belonging to the Provider, this practice had obtain'd before Mr. Cooke came into the Paymasters Office but it does not appear that he knew any thing of the other deductions besides the Ten ℔ Cent he receiv'd himself which had also been receiv'd by his Predecessor.

The Paymaster takes 10 ℔ Ct. of the Chinam Maker, the Dubash 5 ℔ Ct. the Conicoply 5 ℔ Ct. and 5 ℔ Ct. more shard among the other people employ'd.

The particulars of the Presidents report being consider'd, It is AGREED,

The Presidts. report being consider'd AGREED

FIRST that Mr. Cooke being absent We suspend Our determination concerning him till his return from the West Coast, that he may have the opportunity to answer for himself, and that the matter be in the mean time particularly advis'd in Our first generall letter to the Honble. Court of Directors.

That We suspend Our determination concerning Mr. Thos. Cooke till his return from the Wt. Coast.

SECONDLY that Mr. Cookes Dubash Juggana who appears to have receiv'd five ℔ Cent of the Maker of the Chinam be taken into Custody.

Juggana the Paymasters Dubash taken into Custody.

The President communicates to the Board severall letters which he receivd the 24th. Inst. from the Nabob, Tyre Cawn, and the Buxee with copys of orders from Sied Hussanally Cawn to the Nabob, and from the Nabob to Tyre Cawn to retake Trivitore &ca. Villages from Us on pretence that the Phirmaund was of no effect (all which letters are enter'd in the Copy book of Country letters receiv'd and sent) the President propos'd as the best expedient to gain time to write to the Nabob Saddatulla Cawn for leave to write to Sied Hussanally Cawn and to receive his answer, before We return a possitive answer to their demand of our surrendering the Villages, which if granted would spin out two or three months, and by that time We may hope the Europe ships will be arriv'd when we shall be better able to make a judgment what ought to be done in this affair which proposall was agreed to.

The Presidt. communicates to the Board sevll. Lres he has receiv'd from the Nabob Tyree Cawn and the Buxee wherein they demand Trivitore &cra. Villages.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, APRIL 1718——

The Presidt. declares that he had made some enquiry into the affair of the Toddy Licence and that he would take Messrs. Jennings & Legg to make a further enquiry into it.

The President declares that according to his promise in last Consultation that he had made some enquiry into the affair of the Toddy Licence and that he would take Mr. Jennings and Mr. Legg to his assistance in making yet a further enquiry, that if the greivances complain'd of were found to be real and considerable they might be redress'd, he added that he had also brot. with him the Toddy Cowle in order to have the error corrected but propos'd that that might be deferr'd till we had determin'd whether the Cowle should be cõntinu'd or not which was agreed to.

The Six or seven bales taken in from the Merchants to be intended over and above the 45 bales already receiv'd.

The Warehouskeeper desir'd an explanation of the order of last Council whether the Six or seven bales of Beteelas permitted to be taken in from the Merchants be intended to be over and above the forty five bales already receiv'd which was agreed in the Affirmative.

The Warehouskeepr. reports that he had embald 41 bales of white Longcloth ordry. which the Merchts. wash'd in the Country and are to make good any deficiency in measure or damage that may appear on their arrivall in England.

The Warehouskeepr. reports that he had sorted and embal'd Forty One bales of white Longcloth ordinary mark'd as follows LCO. ✕ which were deliver'd in by the Merchants white having been wash'd in the Country where the water is better for washing than at th[is] place, and that the Merchants had oblig'd themselves to make good any deficiency in measure or damage which may appear on their arrivall in England which cannot be discover'd here.

Mr. Thoms. Frederick refusing to Sign last Consultation without making an exception is order'd to withdraw.

The last Consultation was read in order to be sign'd, and being sign'd by the President was by him deliver'd to Mr. Frederick who turning to that part of the Consultation which related to himself declar'd that he could not sign it without excepting to that part where the charge is urg'd against him for severall facts for which he is said to begg pardon, as trifling with the Board, threatening the President with a remonstrance & using this expression that he see which way things were going, he alledg'd that he was charg'd only with the last of these and that he begg'd pardon for that only and deny'd that the two first had been charg'd upon him, or that they were not true in fact, on which the President mov'd the Board that Mr. ffrederick might be order'd to withdraw while the matter was debated which was unanimously agreed to And Mr. ffrederick withdrew accordingly.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, MAY 1718——

Then the President propos'd to the Board to examine strictly that part of the last Consultation objected to by Mr. Frederick and desir'd every one seperately to declare whether what he had wrote therein was, or was not a true, full, and fair relation of the matter of fact as Transacted at the Board, which being done it was unanimously agreed, every one declaring his judgment seperately that the relation of matter of fact concerning Mr. ffrederick in the last Consultation was true, full, and fair, and that Mr. Fredericks objections were notoriously false and contrary to the truth.

The President desir'd the Board to examine strictly that part of the last Consultation objected to by Mr. Frederick whether what he had wrote therein was not a full true & fair acct. as transacted at the Board which was unanimously Agreed by every one that the matter was full and fair and that Mr. Fredericks objections were notoriously false and contrary to the truth.

It was then consider'd whether Mr. Frederick could be admitted to sign the last Consultation with the exception he propos'd which past in the Negative by the unanimous vote of the Board for the following reasons.

Mr. Frederick not allow'd to sign Last Consultation with an exception for the following Reasons.

FIRST that his objection was founded on a notorious falshood in fact he having been expressly charg'd with all the three articles by the President.

FIRST that his objection is founded on a notorious falshood

SECONDLY that if he only begg'd pardon for the third offence mention'd it was equivocall and did not come up to the order of the last Consultation, his begging pardon in generall terms without accepting to any particulars of the Charge, being in all just and reasonable construction an acknowledgment of the whole.

SECONDLY that if he only begg'd pardon for ye. [3d.] offence it was equivocall and did not come [up] to the Order of the Board.

The President then propos'd to the Board to consider what further steps were to be taken in case Mr. Frederick should refuse to sign the Consultation without an exception, this was largely debated and spoke to by every one at the Board, and at length it was unanimously agreed that in case Mr. Frederick should possitively refuse to sign the last Consultation without the liberty of making an exception to that article concerning himself that the President should declare him to be suspended the Honble. Companys service till their pleasure should be known therein for the following reasons.

The Presidt. propos'd to the Board to consider what further Steps were to be taken in case Mr. ffrederick should refuse to Sign the Consultation without an exception which was largely debated and unanimously agreed that in case Mr. Frederick should refuse to sign last Consultation without making an exception that the Presidt. should declare Mr. Frederick suspended the Honble. Compas. Service for the following reasons.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, MAY 1718——

That his pretence for making an exception was false in Fact.

FIRST that his pretence for making an exception being false in Fact and in denyall of what we had all set Our hands to was a giving the lie to the whole Board.

That Mr. Fredericks prevarrication in this matter amounted to a retraction of the pardon he had begg'd last Consultation.

SECONDLY that Mr. Fredericks prevarrication in this matter amounted to a retraction of the pardon he had begg'd the last Consultation, and renderd him guilty of a breach of that Order by which he had been oblig'd to begg pardon at the Board.

That he had been guilty of severall indecent expressions which had been past by partly on acct. of his Long standing at ye. Board.

THIRDLY that thô this was the first judicial notice that had been taken of Mr. Fredericks late behaviour at the Board, yet that he had been guilty of severall indecent expressions which had been past by partly on account of his long standing at the Board, and partly because he had frequently publickly declar'd that he was determin'd to go to Europe by the next October shipping, and we were unwilling to quarrell with an Old Member just at parting, Among others on a report being made not exactly agreeable to his mind he said in a threatening air to this purpose that he was going home to the Court of Directors and should give them an account of Our management, and another time with the same haughty threatening air he said that he should shortly see the Directors, and let them know how things went or to that purpose.

FOURTHLY the permitting him to remain at the Board after refusing to sign the Consultation would be to give up the whole authority of the President and Council to one man, who by the Constitution of the Honble. Company has no more authority at the Board than any other single Member of it.

Mr. Frederick call'd in & told by ye. Presidt. that the Board would not admit him to sign last Consultation with an exception which he refusing was by the President declard Suspended.

Mr. ffrederick was then calld in and told by the President that the Board would not admit him to sign the last Consultation with an exception but that they requir'd him to sign it intirely with the rest under penalty of immediate suspension, Mr. Frederick expressly refus'd to sign the Consultation without the exception he had before made which he then offer'd to the Board in writing on which the President declard Mr. ffrederick to be suspended the Honble. Companys Service.

Mr. Frederick desir'd his paper might be read which was done & he withdrew.

Before he withdrew Mr. Frederick desir'd his paper might be read which was done and he withdrew.

Mr. Fredericks paper so farr as it is inconsistent with the Consultation found to be notoriously false.

It was then agreed that Mr. Fredericks paper just now read so farr as it is inconsistent with the Consultation was notoriously false and contrary to the truth but however it was order'd to be enterd after this Consultation.

Mr. William Jennings constituted Accompt.

ORDER'D that Mr. William Jennings now Second of the Board be constituted Accomptant but yt. there be no further change of posts in Council till the arrivall of the Europe ships, least there should be any addition or alteration made in the Council by the Honble. Court of Directors.

The Secry. to write an order to Mr. Frederick to deliver up all books and papers belonging to the Accomptants Office to Mr. Jennings.

The petition of Appeal given in by Erre Chittee, and the Judgment given in the Mayors Court for Sheveram Chittee was read and the partys heard. It appear'd that the Mayors Court had given judgment upon sufficient, good and legall evidence and that the Appellant had nothing material to alledge wherefore the judgment of the Mayors Court in the case of Sheveram Chittee plaintiff and Erre Chittee Defendant was confirm'd by the Board.

Just before the Board rose M^r. Frederick sent in a short note desiring a copy of his charge, which is enter'd after this Consultation.

The President reports that himself assisted by Mess^{rs}. William Jennings and John Legg have made a full enquiry into the state of the Toddy Licence and the complaints of the greivances arrising from it and that they found the fact to be as follows that the Rent of all the Toddy gardens did not amount to Pag^{s}. Three thousand ℔ annum, that since the granting the Toddy Cowle the rents of the said gardens were sunk about Pag^{s}. five hundred ℔ annum which is the full sum the Cowle brings in, by which it appears that the whole Tax lies upon a very few people, and that the value of their plantations is sunk about Twenty ℔ Cent, the President further adds that this must be a discouragement to the Planters, and would probably obstruct the improvments which are at present carrying on besides that all Taxes ought to be laid in as near a proportion as may be and generally diffus'd, he therefore propos'd to the Board to consider of a different method for raising mony for the support of the Government upon extraordinary occasions in the nature of a Land Tax, by assessing all rents of houses and gardens at so much ℔ Cent as shall be found upon Trial sufficient to answer the present demand, he added that an opportunity of trying this method would offer very soon, the five Choultry[s] order'd to be built for the defence of the Northside of the Town being very near finish'd and that as soon as the whole charge appeard, such a Tax as now propos'd might be levied to answer that expence which being once done with care and equallity, would be a standing rule for the levying any certain sum for the future.

The President with Mess^{rs}. Jennings & Legg report the state of the Toddy Licence.

The whole matter being thorôly consider'd the Board agreed that the method now propos'd should be taken for levying the mony laid out in building the Choultrys and making the Line of Communication and with respect to the Toddy Licence the Board came to the following resolutions.

The affair of the Toddy Licence consider'd upon which the Board came to the following resolutions.

FIRST that the whole produce of the Toddy Farm falling upon a very few persons is a greivance.

FIRST that the Toddy Farm is a greivance.

SECONDLY that therefore the Toddy Licence be revok'd according to the power reserv'd in a clause of the Cowle of recalling it, if after the expiration of one year it were found to be a greivance.

SECONDLY that the Toddy Licence be revok'd.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, MAY 1718——

Thirdly that to prevent any ill effect the taking away the Toddy Licence may have on the Arrack Farm the following orders to be establish'd.

THIRDLY that to prevent any ill effect the revoking the Toddy Licence may have on the Arrack Farm by lessening its value, and also to releive the Toddy Farmer from any damage he may sustain by taking leases of any Toddy gardens in expectation of the continuance of the said Cowle the following orders be establish'd.

That no person sell Toddy within ye. Town.

FIRST that no persons be allow'd to sell Toddy within the Town or any where but in the gardens where it is produc'd.

That the Arrack Farmer may purchase Toddy any where without the English bounds.

SECONDLY that the Arrack Farmer have liberty to purchase Toddy any where without the English bounds.

The Sellers of Toddy not to impose on the Arrack Farmer.

THIRDLY that the Sellers of Toddy at the gardens shall not demand of the Arrack Farmer a higher price than formerly which was one fanam for Six potts containing four gallons three quarts.

That the Toddy Farmer on quitting his Cowle have liberty to resign any gardens he had agreed to Rent.

FOURTHLY that the Toddy Farmer on quitting his Cowle shall have liberty to resign any gardens which he had agreed to Rent for any certain time, and that the Proprietors shall be oblig'd to receive them notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary.

The Secry. to deliver the late Toddy Farmer a copy of the preceeding orders.

ORDER'D that the Secry. deliver to Lewis Melique late Toddy Farmer a copy of the preceeding orders.

FORT S^{T}. GEORGE, MAY 31ST 1718.

J. TURTON
Stew^{d}.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, JUNE 1718——

To the Hon^ble^. Joseph Collet Esq^r^.

Presid^t^. & Gov^r^. of Fort S^t^. George & Fort S^t^. David &c^ra^. Council.

Hon^ble^. S^r^. &c^ra^.

The confidence I have in Your justice and equity, engages me to lay the following complaint before You against Marcus Moses formerly an Inhabitant in Ponticherry, and at present of Fort S^t^. George, and to demand Justice for the abuses he is accus'd of by my Correspondents, in the purchase of Diamonds he made by my order both at the Mines and elsewhere for account of my aforesaid Correspondents who demand of me reparation for the considerable losses they have receiv'd by his increasing the prizes to a third above the real value, and some more than a third, as will appear by their severall letters to me, who are persons of Credit and worthy to be beleiv'd, and it will likewise appear by a publick and lawfull estimation, made of a parcell of said goods and sign'd by people of irreproachable characters and known to be very well skill'd in the prices of all Jewells.

I desire Gentlemen that you will permit me before I descend into the particulars of my demands to have the hon^r^. succinctly to explain to You the reasons which induc'd me thus to engage my self with Marcus Moses.

Govern^r^. Pitt in the year 1712 sent him to Paris with a modell of his great diamond, and at the same time recommended him very particularly to me, and desird me [to] do him all the favour that might lie in my power which gave me opportunitys of seeing him frequently, and it [was] offer'd to me at the same time to return to Ponticherry, I fram'd a design to engage my Freinds to enter with me into the diamond trade, provided I could engage some person experienced that way to settle at Pondicherry (having no knowledge in it myself) I made the proposition to Moses, who seemd to approve it, but as I was not acquainted with his character, I was willing before I came to a conclusion to inform myself of his probity and capacity, for which end I address'd my self to a freind in London who after he had made the necessary enquirys on such occasions, gave me very advantageous assurances in favour of the said Moses, which engag'd me at once to conclude with him. This resolution was no sooner taken but I was confirm'd in a good opinion of him by the Stocks that severall people of distinction with whom I had no manner of correspondence before remitted to me to be employ'd in diamonds by the said Moses, and by the orders that Two of them gave me to draw upon them as far as Thirty thousand pagodas for the same purpose. These are the reasons which determind me to engage my Freinds to enter into this Trade, and for which they would at this time make me responsible for the bad purchases the said Moses made for them, because as I have before said they assert the prices are augmented.

I cannot then but apply my self to Your Hon^r^. &c^ra^. for Justice (since the said Moses is under your protection) after you have been so kind to examine into the nature of my greivance, founded upon the complaints of severall persons of Credit, whose letters I am ready to produce the material of which is as follows.

Mons^r^. Claude Masson by his letter of the 23^d^. Sept^r^. 1716 complains of a remittance of Pag^s^. Three hundred and Twenty and three fanams which he says he will legally sell in publick that he may protest against me for all damages and Interest of his mony.

Mons^r^. Laumosne de Chapdelaine by his letter of the 4^th^. March 1717 makes the like heavy complaint of a remittance of Pag^s^. Three thousand and forty four, and thirteen fanams which goods he averrs were overrated one third of their value and designs to make me answer for it.

Mons^r^. La Beliere Grave makes bitter complaints of a bulse remitted him amounting to (Commission excluded) Pag^s^. Three thousand two hundred and thirty or Livres Twenty five thousand eight hundred and Forty, which has been valu'd at no more than Pag^s^. Fifteen hundred eighty five or Livres Twelve thousand six hundred thirty five, and the same of a bulse provided for Mons^r^. La Ponmery amounting to Pag^{s}. Four hundred forty one or Livres three thousand five hundred twenty eight which is worth no more than Pag^{s}. Three hundred Fifty six or Livres Two thousand eight hundred and Fifty according to the valuation of M^{r}. Des Maura Philipe and Claude Masson given in upon oath.

Madam Granvill Loquet by her letter of the 8th. March 1717, makes me equally responsible for Two bulses amounting to Pag^{s}. Three thousand five hundred and fifteen, fifteen fanams charg'd at an exorbitant price.

Mons^{r}. Dudamaine Guard by his letter dated in March 1717, writes the most greivous and peircing complaints imaginable of an Investment made for him to the amount of Pag^{s}. Sixteen thousand nine hundred seventy three, and Twenty two fanams.

The same I may say of Mons^{r}. La Cheveleir De Ryon of eight bulses amounting to Pag^{s}. Four thousand nine hundred and Fifty and fifteen fanams.

Mons^{r}. Desault to whom the said Moses has the greatest obligations complains in an extraordinary manner against a bulse amounting to Pag^{s}. Nineteen hundred sixty one pagodas which he vows must have been overcharg'd very considerably, for which reason he keeps it by him on my acc^{t}. having debted me the said sum̃, from the 1st. of January 1714.

Mons^{r}. Burgos Director for the affairs of the S^{t}. Malo's Company at Bengall complains very much of a remittance of Pag^{s}. Twelve hundred thirty eight and eighteen fanams consign'd to Mons^{r}. Vanbore the King's Leiutenant at S^{t}. Malo's, and of some other parcels I sent with Mons^{r}. Nyon which I have before mention'd. The said Mons^{r}. Burgos by his letter dated at Chaudungoe the 17th. November 1717 waits for my answer whether he may commence a process in Form against the said Moses before Your Hon^{r}. &c^{ra}.

Besides the complaints beforemention'd which have been directly address'd to me, I am credibly inform'd that severall Officers belonging to the Kings ships that were at Ponticherry in the year 1714 design likewise on the same account to give me trouble all which reasons I beleive are sufficient to convince you of the difficultys and troubles I am likely to fall into at my arrivall in France, whither I design speedily to embark and this is what obliges me to have recourse to you Gentlemen, and to represent to you that to prevent the Trouble I am threatned with, and repair the injury that my wounded reputation has actually suffer'd, I can see no way more effectuall than to oblige the said Moses to furnish me with the Leads of the large stones, to explain in the memoriall he has remitted me of the severall purchases he has made, the names of the persons he bought them of and the places where they live, and that he give me letters directed to them, that they may produce their books to the persons I shall authorize for that purpose to examine the prices whether they are conformable to his.

I likewise take the liberty to inform you that some months since a report has been spread abroad at Ponticherry that the Dubash of the said Moses had robb'd him whilst at the Mines, but in the end he oblig'd him to make restitution by the payment of a considerable Sum̃, which circumstance has lead me since my arrivall here to inform my self of the particulars of this affair which I hear are as follows.

Vincatty the Dubash of the said Moses being dangerously ill his Conicoply inform'd him that Vincatty had requird of the Merchants more than his Custom upon the purchase of the diamonds at the Mines, upon which advice Moses imediately went to him and threaten'd him with severe punishment and imprisonment if he did not make satisfaction, which Treatment so terrified the Dubash that he consented to give him Two thousand pagodas, and thereupon gave him a bill for the said sum̃, on a diamond Merchant nam'd Bodica who paid it to Moses.

Besides which one Jennados a Broker ow'd Vincatty Pag^{s}. Six hundred, Moses was no sooner inform'd of it than he bought goods of him, and when he came to make payment deducted the said Six hundred pagodas.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, JUNE 1718——

Sometime afterwards the said Vincatty removing out of Town into the Country to recover his health died there, which when Moses heard I am informd he directly laid hold of his papers and accounts and at length all his effects, for the produce of which he receiv'd another Sum̃, the particulars whereof I beleive may be examin'd into.

I likewise Join to this my request a short state of five particular articles which Moses makes to amount to Pag^{s}. Two thousand nine hundred and ninety pag^{s}. which I beleive ought to be valu'd at no more than Pag^{s}. Two thousand and fifteen and eighteen fanams wherefore it occasions a difference of nine hundred and seventy Pag^{s}. eighteen fan^{s}. and is worth looking into.

You may easily observe Gentlemen because I had the honour of explaining to you before the undispensable necessity there is both in regard to my reputation and credit and the interest of my Correspondents to supplicate you to order Moses

First that he proves in the manner I have before requird the validity of his purchases, and particularly for those parcells beforemention'd.

Secondly that he deliver me the Sum̃s, that he receivd of his Dubash Vincatty as a restitution of what he receivd of the Merchants that I may make it good to the persons concernd.

Thirdly that he reimburse me here Pag^{s}. Nineteen hundred, ninty nine and four fan^{s}. for the amount of the bulse sent Mons^{r}. Dusault which he has pass'd to my account denying to take it upon his own for the reasons beforemention'd, and I for my part promise to direct the delivery of the said bulse to his order.

Fourthly that he give me substantiall security to reimburse me in case that hereafter I or himself should be awarded to make good all damages either to the persons that have sent their complaints directly to me (as appears by the severall extracts before incerted) and to all others for whom he has made any Investments.

ffifthly that he delivers Me all the accounts and other papers of his Dubash which may be of Service in the proof of his Investments, I likewise request Gentlemen that experienc'd persons may be appointed to examine the five articles beforemention'd whether the remarks I have made are just or not.

Sixthly I have further to represent to you Gentlemen that in the month of April or May 1714 I promis'd Cap^{t}. How with the consent of the said Moses to take of him Pag^{s}. One thousand at Respondentia on the Grantham Commanded by Cap^{t}. Collet, at the rate of Twelve shillings and sixpence for a pagoda, and as that ship was upon her departure in the month of July in the same year, and Moses being then at the Mines, I was oblig'd in order to execute my agreement with Cap^{t}. How to make up a bulse of four stones, which I took from a parcell Moses had sent me amounting to Pag^{s}. One thousand and five and consign'd it to Peter Deharre upon whom I drew a bill of exchange for Six hundred and Twenty five Pound Sterling which he has paid out of my stock, Now as this bulse remains by him unsold through the bad quallity of the stones, I demand that the said Moses should pay me Three hundred and Twelve pound Ten shillings with Interest from the 1st. of March 1715, to the day of said payment, provided that I give him an order to M^{r}. Peter Deharre to sell the said bulse in concert with the Freinds of Moses and out of the produce to pay them his half.

All this I offer to your most serious consideration and am with the utmost respect

Fort S^{t}. George June 11th. 1718.

TO THE HONBLE. JOSEPH COLLET ESQR.
PRESIDT. & GOVERNR. OF FFORT ST. GEORGE &CRA. COUNCIL.

HONBLE. SR. & SRS.

Having thôrowly perus'd St. Peter Duliviers charge against me to Your Hont. &cta. which you were pleas'd to order to be sent me by your Secretary, I shall now take the liberty to return a just answer to every article.

In his first paragraph he tells your Hont. &cta. that I overcharg'd in the Investments I made a third and sometimes more than a third in the real value of the goods, this notion he has from the Gentlemen in France, who priz'd the goods at the same rate they formerly us'd to buy them here, and at the then present price they sold for in France whereas t'is very well known that since the year 1712 diamonds have increas'd in price considerably in these parts, and been much lower than usual in Europe, but besides this t'is not unlikely that those persons who valued the diamonds had an inclination to buy them themselves and then they might estimate them as they pleas'd.

In answer to St. Peter Duliviers second paragraph wherein he mentions the rect. of severall Letters from France with greivous complaints against me, I need only say that St. Peter and his Freinds ought to blame none but themselves for I told St. Peter in presence of Monsr. Dudemaine particularly, that I was very sensible nothing could be got by diamonds in their sale in Europe, giving as my reason that the large sums of mony brought by the French ships together with that from China and the consignments directly from England, all which was to be invested would undoubtedly raise the price so high as to remove all thoughts of advantage, but his answer to me was that the mony was come and must be invest'd, I accordingly made the Investment in the best manner [I] could, and gave in my accounts which I solemnly declare were truly just.

St. Peter Dulivier requests my delivering him the Leads of the large stones and the names of those persons of whom I bought the diamonds.

I declare that I make no leads of Stones I buy on Commission nor of any other except I am desir'd by a Gen[tle]man, and then the Lead is deliver'd to him, or have the curiosity to cut a stone for my self, It would signifie nothing to me to take a Lead of stones I send to strange[rs] since I do not see the cutting of them.

As for the names of the persons I bought the goods of I cannot but think it a very unaccountable request, tis probable I may remember of whom I bought some few large stones, but impossible for me to tell the names of whom I bought so many parcells of small stones, but at the Mines no Merchant appears in the sale of that commodity, but employs a Cooly who would not tell me his name even if I should desire such an out of the way thing and were it possible to give him an account of [their] names, they would not be such Fools as to own them. I can[not] see what advantage this could be to St. Peter, but t'is very plain were I to attempt such a thing my reputation [would] be ruind with the Merchants at the Mines with whom I am considerably concernd, so farr that I can have what [goods] I please upon my bare letter without sending mony.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, JUNE 1718——

Farther should I endeavour to betray them [by] giving it under my hand that I bought large stones I mu[st] never think of appearing in any Moors Government where they would surely put me in Irons, this would be of the utmost prejudice to me as I may happen to go again to the Mines.

I hope Your Hon^{r}. &c^{ra}. Gentlemen will consider of the unreasonableness of S^{r}. Peters request, who I am willing to satisfie by taking my oath to the truth of my accounts.

I am supriz'd to see that S^{r}. Peter Dulivier has pickd out of his paper five small parcells, which he or his freinds here pretend to value, but no man is capable of valuing stones by a paper without seeing them, for oftentimes stones of three Mangeline are worth as much as those of six and one of two as one of four &c^{ra}. besides the stones he takes notice of were not bought by the parcell but were all chosen singly, and even in this very parcell which amounts to Two thousand nine hundred and ninety five pagodas, I can prove that above eighteen hundred pagodas of them goods were sent to people from whom he has receiv'd no complaint at least he does not mention any, the rest were all very fine and were bought on a particular account as I am ready to inform the Hon^{ble}. Board by word of mouth to prevent unnecessary trouble.

S^{r}. Peter desires your Hon^{r}. &c^{ra}. to order me to reimburse him for a bulse sent Mons^{r}. Dusault, which is a thing never heard of that a Man who receives Commission for buying a parcel of goods should be oblig'd to take them on his own acc^{t}. if they did not answer in Europe, and then he desires I should give him security for what damages he may sustain in France which I doubt not your Hon^{r}. &c^{ra}. will think too unreasonable to be comply'd with.

He likewise demands of me the sum of Three hundred and twelve pound, twelve shillings account mony taken up of Cap^{t}. How, I remember I heard him talk of some mony taken up of the said Cap^{t}. but declare I always thought it was on acc^{t}. of cloth he sent to France on his proper account, I assure your Hon^{r}. &c^{ra}. that he never before told me I was concernd in that Mony, and what I think is convincing the head of his Invoice mentions nothing of my name, nor is the bulse markd with any other letter but P.D. which plainly shows he designd it for his own account.

I must desire your Hon^{r}. &c^{ra}. to observe that S^{r}. Peter Dulivier in his paper tells you of orders We had to draw upon substantiall men in England to the amount of Pag^{s}. Thirtv thous^{d}. (which bonds I have now by me) If I were the person S^{r}. Peter represents me, and so desirous of drawing Commission what could have prevented me from Investing that sum, but he knows very well I never drew at all being sensible Our Correspondents must loose by it, Notwithstanding when I was at the Mines he took up of M^{r}. John Maubert the sum of Pag^{s}. Seven thousand and oblig'd me to lay out five thousand of it in diamonds I beleive the other Two thousand remains still in dispute, for I would never furnish him with goods for it, this I think plainly shows that S^{r}. Peter was more desirous of Commission than my self.

And now I am to take notice that he desires I may be order'd [to return him what mony I had from my Dubash Vincatty, What I receiv'd of said Vincatty was on account of mony sent to the Mines on my own account, I can fairly prove that Vincatty us'd to carry my peons home with him where he opend the baggs and took out Ten pagodas from every five hundred but S^{r}. Peter Dulivier says it was on account of his taking Two ℔ Cent at the Mines I have had no Commissions from the French since my being an Inhabitant of this place, therefore cannot see what reason he [has] to demand that mony. The manner in which he expresses himself on this head is barbarously reflecting on me as well as an affront on the Hon^{ble}. Govern^{r}. by whose order I first acted, and afterwards by that of the Mayors Court, for he says I went to Vincattys house and threatned him with severe punishment and afterwards when he was gone into the Country to recover his health (where by the way every body knows he run away and in my debt) I went to his house and seiz'd upon his effects and papers, afterwards bought goods of a Merchant that was indebted to him and stop'd the mony which is not practicable for a private person to do in Fort S[t]. George.

Before I conclude I begg leave to acquaint Your Hon[r]. &c[ra]. that S[r]. Peter Dulivier is indebted to me on bond Pag[s]. thirteen hundred and fourteen which together with the Interest due thereon and mony lent Pag[s]. One hundred fifty nine, thirty one fanams and Twenty three cash is Pag[s]. Fourteen hundred seventy three, thirty one fanams and Twenty three Cash, this mony I took up at Interest my self to send him to Pondicherry and am daily press'd for the payment therefore desire your Hon[r]. &c[ra]. to order him to discharge that debt.

Having I hope returnd a satisfactory answer to wh[at] S[r]. Peter Dulivier charges me with I must desire the Hon[ble]. Board to do me justice in causing him to make satisfaction for the injury he has done my reputation in this affair which will lay a very great obligation on him that is with due respect Petition from William Bowridge Factor read desiring leave to lay down the Hon^{ble}. Companys Service and to take his passage on ship Derby for Great Britain which is granted and his petition is enterd after this Consultation.

The Presid^{t}. reports a Complaint w^{ch}. he rec^{d}. against one Rich^{d}. Seale for murther [on] board one of y^{e}. ships in the road.

The President informs the Board that he had receivd a complaint against one Richard Seele Mate of the Shrowsberry Cap^{t}. William Weld Commander now riding at anchor in Our Road, for having by cruel and barbarous treatment kill'd one Mathews a Christian Lascarr on board [the] said Ship on Wensday night last past, and that upon examination of the Evidence and the Prisoner he found the case so foul, that he thought it proper to have the Prisoner tried before the Board, being unwilling by his single authority to judge in a case of so great importance.

The Prison^{r}. & the Evidence called in & Examined.

AGREED that the Prisoner and the Evidence be immediately call'd in and examin'd.

The Evidence Sworn.

The Evidence were Sidoo, Yellaree, & Poterauz all three Lascarrs belonging to said ship Shrowsberry who were sworn to speak the whole truth, and nothing but the truth according to the rights of their own religion by a Braminy who put a sprigg of Mint into each of their hands and power'd water upon it, they eat the Mint, and power'd the water out of their hands upon their heads, which ceremony being perform'd each of them severally gave in a full relation of the Fact, and their Evidence agreeing even in the minutest circumstances was in substance as follows.

The Circumstances related.

That the day before that which immediately preceded the Murther, the Prisoner went on board the ship Derby and returnd about nine a clock at night aboard his own ship with the Cooper of the Derby in his company, they supp'd together and lay on board the Shrowsberry that night, about Ten the next morning they went into the boat, and attempted to go on board the Derby but the wind being contrary and the Sea running high they could not fetch her, but return'd on board the Shrowsberry where they staid all day and supp'd in the evening, at supper there were Two Candles on the Table, one a pretty large peice, the other almost burnt out, the latter going out by accident was taken up by the deceas'd in order to light it, on which the Prisoner ask'd the deceas'd what was become of the rest of his candles, to which the deceas'd answer'd that he did not know of any more, on which the Prisoner flew out into an extravagant passion reviling and threatning the deceas'd, he then order'd the Lascarrs to bind him to a Capston barr, which being done he order'd the Lascarrs to beat him, they all refus'd saying he had committed no fault, he then took a rattan with which he beat the deceas'd for some time and then return'd into the Cabbin and charg'd a brace of pistolls and Two Blunderbusses, and bringing out the pistolls he again order'd the Lascarrs to beat the dec^{d}. threatening to shoot them if they refus'd, and presented the pistolls towards them, on which they being in fear of their lives, obey'd him and gave the deceasd severall blows with a Rattan, the Prisoner then went into the Cabbin and took a draught of Punch, thô he was before very much in liquor as was also his Companion the Cooper, he then came out again and beat the deceas'd as before, and order'd his leggs to be bound to another barr, and a stick to be bound cross his breast and the Iron bolt of the pump to be bound in his mouth, and then again order'd the Witnesses to beat the deceas'd, which they refusing prosterated themselves on the deck, and laying hold of the Prisoners Feet, begg'd for Mercy towards the deceas'd who had committed no fault, he forc'd them to quit their hold by threatening to shoot them if they did not leave him, he then went into the Cabbin, and then having taken another draught of Punch he brought out a sword with which he prick'd the deceasd's buttocks in three severall places, after which he seiz'd the deceas'd by the hair of the head, and with one of the pistolls gave him severall hard blows on the head, Neck, back and Reins and then retir'd to his Cabbin where he sat the greatest part of the night with his pistolls in his lap, the Cooper being gone to sleep on a Cott before the prisoner had prick'd the deceas'd with a Sword.

The Evidence further add about Twelve a clock at night (what is before related happening betwixt nine and Ten) they came aft as farr as the Mainmast to see how it was with the deceas'd, but they durst not go further, observing the Prisoner sitting as before describ'd with his pistolls in his lap, they observ'd the deceasd's head to hang down, but did not know whether he was dead or alive, the next morning before Sun rise the Cooper came upon deck, and found the Lascar still bound and dead, the prisoner also coming upon deck and seeing the deceasd to be dead he shook him by the hair, and ask'd him for his candles, he then orderd the Witnesses to unbind him and throw him overboard which they refus'd saying he was not of their Cast, he then orderd some Christian Lascarrs to unbind the deceas'd which they did, and found his leggs and arms so stiff as not to be mov'd out of the posture he had been bound in, but they also refus'd to throw him overboard, the Prisoner then went on shore, and returning on board some hours after, he found the body still upon deck coverd with a cloth, he lift up the cloth to look at it, and then jump'd upon the deceasd's belly, and threw himself upon the body.

The Evidence further Declare as follows.

The evidence further add that the deceas'd had bled considerably and also voided blood by ewring.

The Evidence further declare.

The Prisoner being ask'd what he had to say in his own defence reply'd that the evidence had agreed to make this story against him, that he had only beat the deceas'd with a slight rattan which could not kill him, and that the pump bolt was not in his mouth above half an hour.

The Prisonr. Evades ye. Matter.

Anthony Prigmore Cooper of the Derby was next examin'd but not upon oath, the President knowing by his former Examination of him, that he could not say any thing to the purpose having been extremely drunk all that evening, he now told some part of the story agreeable to the Lascarrs evidence, in some particulars he contradicted himself, and in many of the circumstances said he knew nothing of the matter.

[Coo]per of the Derby Examin'd concerning that Affair.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, JUNE 1718—

The Opinions of the Board giv'n Severally & in Condemnation of the prisonr. but havg. no powr. to pass sentence the Presidt. proposes that the Prisonr. be kept in Irons in the Cock house upon Rice & Water till the Compa. pleasure be known concerng. him.

The President then desir'd every Member of the Board to declare his opinion whether the Prisoner was guilty of murther or not, every one answer'd in the affirmative, and the President also declard himself of the same opinion, and added that as he had not yet receiv'd any Commission for Trying any persons accus'd of Murther, Piracy or Robbery on the High Seas, he did not conceive himself empower'd to give judgment of death upon an English man, neither did he think the Charter of the Corporation sufficient to warrant Judgment of death on any English Subject, He therefore propos'd that the Prisoner be kept in Irons in the Cockhouse upon Rice and water till We can advise Our Honble. Masters of the particulars, and receive their orders how to proceed.

The Granthams treasure [re]ported to be right.

The Warehouskeeper with Mr. John Legg report that they have examin'd the Granthams Treasure in presence of the Capt. and find it come out right according to Invoice.

TO THE HONBLE. JOSEPH COLLET ESQR.

PRESIDT. & GOVERNR. OF FFORT ST. GEORGE & FORT ST. DAVID &CRA. COUNCIL.

SR. PETER DULIVIERS REPLY TO THE ANSWER OF MARCUS MOSES.

HONBLE. SR. &CRA.

According to my request Your Secretary has deliver'd me a Copy of Marcus Moses's answer to my charge against him which I had the honour to deliver you the 5th, of last month. I begg of you to permit me to make some small remarks thereupon in which I shall endeavour to avoid being tedious to Your Honr. &cm. and hope very evidently not only to convince you of the weakness of his defence, but likewise the reasonableness of my demands.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, JUNE 1718——

FIRST these persons which complain that Marcus Moses has overcharg'd the diamonds in his Invoice some a third and others more than a third of the real value, are not ignorant that they were dearer in India when their mony was employ'd than the preceeding years, and are further sensible that the badness of the Times had likewise lowerd the prices in France so that what he alledges on this subject is but a weak evasive argument, whereas the just complaints of my Correspondents are founded upon the difference they remark'd between the Investments made by him the said Moses (althô at the Mines) and those made at Madrass by severall persons which produc'd Twenty five ℔ Cent Proffit, and at the same time my Correspondents are considerable losers by Moses who has the boldness to question the probity of those Gentlemen that for a great many years past have carry'd on a very considerable Trade with distinguish'd reputations, and generally known in India as well as in all parts of Europe whose estimation of Two parcells as explaind in my former request was taken upon oath, which I hope was and will still be a sufficient proof and authority for what I have declar'd against him concerning his raising the prices of the diamonds, and must consequently set aside the weak argument he uses in his justification.

SECONDLY had I not been suspicious of Moses's conduct in these affairs, what he advances in this article would be more than sufficient to make me suspect him which I shall endeavour to demonstrate in such a manner that I think will not admit of a reply, I will not repeat what he pretends to have said to Mons^{r}. Dudemain in my presence because it is already explain'd before but only affirm that all which he says on this subject is actually false, which I am ready to prove upon oath, and by letters receiv'd from the said M^{r}. Dudemain well known to be a man of probity and consequently incapable of asserting any thing in opposition to truth and the said Moses was so farr from representing to this Gentleman in my presence what he has the confidence so boldly to affirm, that on the contrary he promis'd to be jointly concern'd with him the sum̃ of Two thousand pagodas on his own proper account which is one of the reasons that Mons^{r}. Dudemain gives in his Letter for his suspicion at that time that Moses had a design to cheat Us, I say cheat us because I my self am Interested in that Investment the sum̃ of eighteen hundred pagodas, Now supposing wh[at] he says on this subject were as true as it is false it may easily be imagin'd that I should never have consented to have taken that sum̃ upon my self when he sollicited me to decline it but on the contrary he assur'd Mons^{r}. Dudemain and my self that the purchase was advantageous. I think the foregoing [is] more than sufficient to confute him in this article, and shew at the same time how little the remainder of his arguments in his answer as he calls it are to be credited.

THIRDLY I have nothing to reply to this article as [to] the Leads.

FOURTHLY But my reputation is so much concernd in proving the validity of the Investments made by Moses that I insist upon what I have already demanded upon th[is] subject.

FIFTHLY In answer to this article which is to the same purpose with the Fourth I have already given sufficient reasons in my former request, and have nothing further [to] add but that Moses without fear of exposing his person in [the] Moors Government as he pretends or the Interest of the Merchants he bought the goods off against whom I have no cause to complain might and ought in regard to his [own] honour and my repose to satisfie me in this particular which I continue earnestly to demand.

SIXTHLY As to the Offer Moses makes me in th[is] article I leave it to Your Hon^{r}. &c^{ra}. to judge whether this will be sufficient to satisfie the persons who make such heavy complaints.

SEVENTHLY I very readily apprehend that generally speaking one cannot so well judge of the value of some stones without seeing them, and likewise do believe that there are those of [three] Mangaleens worth more than others of Ten, but it does not from thence follow that the memorandum I deliver'd with my first request should not be just, First because in making an estimate of those Stones that compose the said five articles it was suppos'd that they were in every particular perfect. Secondly because of the bitter complaints of those persons they were sent to, I have in my former paper cited one from Madd^{m}. Granville Loquet and another from Mons^{r}. La Bellire from whom there were three parcells which Moses passes at Twelve hundred thirty five pagodas, which stones suppos'd to be perfect as aforesaid and valu'd at the highest rates cannot be more than Pag^{s}. Five hundred Sixty three and eighteen fanams, Others of another parcell priz'd by him at Pag^{s}. Seventeen hundred and Sixty, are valu'd with the same impartiallity at no more than Pag^{s}. Thirteen hundred and seventy which was for account of M^{r}. Fontanjou of Paris, and others from S^{t}. Malloes have likewise reproach'd me, tho' I have not incerted it in my first paper their threatenings not being so severe as to make me bear the damages they have suffer'd which thô others insist on because of their particular kindness to me, and being well acquainted that no care or sollicitations were wanting on my side to see them fairly dealt with, all which I think entirely subverts what Moses has alledg'd that no complaint was made of the eighteen hundred pagodas or thereabouts, a part of the five articles amounting to Pag^{s}. Two thousand nine hundred and ninety five, I cannot conceive what he drives at by his offering verbally to explain to this Hon^{ble}. Board the manner of his purchasing the said diamonds, I insist upon my former request and desire it may be examin'd into.

Eighthly I likewise continue to demand that he reimburse me for the bulse of diamonds overvalu'd by him at least Fifty ℔ Cent, according to the letters and declaration of Mons^{r}. Dusault well known all over Europe for a man of probity and distinguish'd reputation who I am assur'd would not assert any thing but truth, t'is by reason of this overvaluation that [he] has reimburs'd himself for this bulse out of my effects in his hands and as I am not directly or indirectly concern'd in this complaint of Mons^{r}. Dusault, and that Moses alone is the only cause nothing appears to me more just than the demand I make that the produce be carried to his Credit and that he pays me the first value, his reasons to extricate himself in my opinion are very weak since a great many examples of this nature are frequently met with that a Merchant may keep for account of his ffactor such goods as he consigns him provided he can make it evidently appear they are overvalud in his Invoice, and without searching the Records of England and France for such Instances I can remember one of this Nature between Govern^{r}. Pitt and myself. I hope your Hon^{ble}. &c^{ra}. when you have duely considerd & impartially weigh'd what I have thus remark'd you will have regard to my demand, and likewise the security I have requested in my former rembnstrance.

Ninthly what Moses asserts in this article I deny and declare it to be actually false, and to prove it I am ready to make oath that when I was proffer'd this mony at Respondentia I would not engage my self to take it upon the diamond trade till after he had consented to it so that he is no less concernd in the One thousand pagodas taken of Cap^{t}. How to be employ'd as above than I was to keep my word with him, Moses was fully acquainted with this at his return from the Mines where I wrote him to Invest this mony which he could not effect wherefore he is mightily in the wrong to pretend so much ignorance and endeavour to perswade your Hon^{r}. &c^{ra}. that he thought this mony was to have been employd in Cloth for Europe, I hope my Char[ac]ter in the world is such that none will believe I ever declar'd or asserted any thing but truth, I am very well acquainted that his name is neither in the Invoice nor bills of Lading which proceeded from Inadvertency of the persons who drew them out which the weighty buisness I had at that time upon me, would not permit me to correct but nevertheless nothing is more certain than that this remittance was of his providing having the Invoice now in my hands under his signing, and that I consign'd it for mine and the said Moses account to M^{r}. Peter Deharre who has again wrote me under the 20th. December last and tells me in proper Terms he will send me an account of the neat produce of the Four rough Stones that I may receive of Moses his part of the Loss which certainly will be very considerable, he had before remarkd to me by his letter of the 15th. April the rec^{t}.

of the said bulse and that if I had not excessively overcharg'd it in the Invoice I was shamefully cheated, I beleive I have said enuff on this head to incline Your Hon^r. &c^ra. to order Moses to pay me the sum in dispute.

TENTHLY Moses in this article as well as in the rest goes a round about way to work that I cannot without some difficulty comprehend his meaning or what he would say, he talks something of greediness for Commission I dont remember to have touchd upon any such Subject in my former remonstrance, wherefore I shall not trouble my self to answer him any further than what relates to the Two thousand pagodas now in dispute with M^r. Maubert who pretends to make me suffer the loss he met with by my not taking that sum of him. That I may not be further troublesome to Your Hon^r. &c^ra. I consent that Arbitrators may be chosen to decide this dispute, provided that Moses is bound under the usual penaltys to submit to their Judgment, having never as I have beforesaid taken any mony at respondentia without his consent, therefore t'is absolutely false what he says in my Forcing him to employ Five thousand pagodas, and this I am ready to assert upon my oath.

ELEVENTH The defence which Moses makes in this article as well as the rest is fill'd with ambiguitys, and is no ways an ans^r. to the Fact insisted on in my declaration, for without explaining what he receiv'd from his Dubash he pretends to claim it as his own as I shall make appear against all justice because says he this Dubash had robbd him out of the mony he sent on his ℔ticular account to the Mines, He receiv'd of this Dubash before he left Madrass Two thousand pagodas by the hands of Bondraga, Jennedos, likewise paid him six hundred which join'd to the produce of his Jewells and other effects amounted to upwards of Three thousand six hundred pagodas, Is it now naturall to beleive that Moses besides the goods he bought and paid for at Madrass should have sent to the Mines since the year 1715 the time of his establishment to August 1717 when his Dubash Vincattee died, Three hundred and sixty thousand pagodas, this I beleive very improbable, but supposing it true I am confident that what he receiv'd from his Dubash was for one ℔ Cent he took more than his due upon all the diamonds Moses bought since his arrivall in India which he made to amount to Pag^s. Four hundred thousand, and for which he demanded four thousand of his Dubash, and to prove what I have now declar'd I request that M^r. Aaron Franks may be call'd and sworn concerning this matter and likewise Bondraga and Jennedoss in relation to the payments I have before mention'd, so that I think nothing appears more just than to oblige Moses to pay me a proportion of what he recivd from the said Dubash for I don't suppose he acted with more honesty in the affairs of my Correspondents than in what related to Moses's own particular, As to that circumstance where Moses alledges I have offer'd an affront to Your Hon^r. &c^ra. in my former papers, I cannot look upon it [otherwise] than as an insinuation proceeding from a Fawning Flatterer who und^r. this Cloak endeavours to shelter himself by publishing that my aim was to attack the authority of this Hon^ble. Board and the Court. If you'l please to take the trouble to reperuse my declaration I am perswaded you will find nothing there that he alledges, and I begg of you to be assur'd that I have too great a respect for Your Hon^r. &c^ra. than to entertain the least thought that may be disagreeble to You.

TWELFTH this article was altogether useless having been ready to discharge the Fourteen hundred Seventy three pagodas, thirty one fanams, and Twenty three Cash the ballance of Moses's account and only waited till the just complaints of my Correspondents against him was decided, but as soon as I was desird I paid what was due to him, the rest of this paragraph I could answer very fully and to the purpose but I decline it that I may not any longer be Troublesome to you.

GENTLEMEN

After having said what I thought necessary by way of reply to Moses's answer to my first declaration I begg the favour of you to permit me still to insist on the Justice of every particular article I have there laid before you, which I shall not here repeat being unwilling any further to enlarge this dispute, but only again request You to order Moses to deliver me all the papers and accounts of his aforesaid deceas'd Dubash of which I observe he takes no notice in the paper he terms his answer, and that he signs to me a true state of every particular parcell of diamonds he purchas'd by my order, and copys of the two orders we receiv'd for drawing bills as beforemention'd to the amount of Thirty thousand pagodas which I desire may be attested by the Publick Notary and other credible persons, I have now finish'd all that I shall at prest. say to this affair, and begg that this Honble. Board will pass a speedy Judgment upon it, reserving to my self at the same time a right to appeal against the said Moses, where and when I shall think it convenient.

——FORT. ST. GEORGE, JUNE 1718——

The report of a Mutiny on board the Grantham Delivd. in.

The President reports that Capt. Thomas Collet Commr. of the Grantham had made a complaint to him that four of his Foremast men, John Black, Benedictus Benninton, William Jones, and Nicholas De Marr had made a mutiny on board his ship in the road the 9th. Instant about four a clock in the afternoon, and desir'd the President to send off some boats with a guard to fetch the Mutineers ashore which was accordingly done the same night, the next morning the prisoners were examin'd and severall witnesses produced particularly Mr. Wright second Mate, Charles Rogers Gunner, John Wilmore Midshipman and the Cawlker by the said evidence it plainly appeard that John Black and Benedict[us] Benninton were the Cheifs in the disturbance, they began [a] sham quarrell between decks, and the second Mate going down to part them was seiz'd by Black who tore off all his cloths and almost strangled him, but was releiv'd by the Gunner and others coming in, that Black and Beñinton being secur'd upon the Quarter deck, Jones came up with a knife in his hand, and said he would loose them or be bound himself, on which one of the Officers attempting to seize him was held by Nicholas De Marr, the Two last were not so criminall as the others and Nicholas De Marr having always behav'd himself well was pardon'd but the other three were orderd to be whipp'd first at the sea gate and then at the side of every English ship in the road to receive six blows more, when they came to the side of the ship Grantham John Black, and Benedictus Benninton swore that if ever they step'd over the ship side they would murther the Second and third Mate if they were sure to be hang'd the next hour, On which Capt. Collet requested of the President that he might leave them behind as being incorrigible and dangerous to which the President agreed and order'd them to be laid in Irons in the Cockhouse and kept on rice and water, and propos'd that they should continue so till they come to be humble to which the Board agreed.

THE JUDGMENT OF THE HON^BLE. JOSEPH COLLET ESQ^R. PRESIDENT &C^RA. COUNCIL OF FFORT S^T. GEORGE ON THE CAUSE DEPENDING BETWEEN S^R. PETER DULIVIER KN^T. LATE GOVERN^R. OF PONTICHERRY AND MR. MARCUS MOSES MERCH^T. OF FFORT S^T. GEORGE AFORESAID.

S^r. Peter Dulivier in his request dated June 11^th. 1718, after a large introduction wherein he represents that Marcus Moses had been employ'd by him to buy severall parcells of diamonds which he the said S^r. Peter Dulivier sent to severall persons in France on Commission, and that his Princip.^lls in France on rec^t. of the diamonds so purchas'd, had made greivous complaints of their being charg'd at too high a rate, and that some of them in particular had requir'd satisfaction of the said S^r. Peter Dulivier for what loss they should sustain by the said diamonds he further represents that Marcus Moses had obtaind a sum or sums of mony of his Dubash who had defrauded him considerably in the course of his Trade, and as he the said S^r. Peter Dulivier had been concernd with Marcus Moses he demands that mony so recover'd, and after the addition of severall particulars in the said introduction he sums up his request to Us under the following heads.

FIRST that Marcus Moses be oblig'd to prove the validity of his purchases by discovering the names of the persons he bought the diamonds of when at the Mines.

SECONDLY that he deliver the sums receiv'd of his Dubash.

THIRDLY that he pay Nineteen hundred ninety nine pagodas and four fanams for the amount of a bulse sent Mons^r. Dusau[lt] which he refuses to accept as overbought and charges to S^r. Peter Dulivier^s account.

FOURTHLY that he give substantiall security to reimburse him in case that hereafter he or himself should be awarded to make good all damages either to the persons that have sent their complaints directly to him, as appears by the severall extracts before incerted, and to all others for whom he has made any investments.

FIFTHLY that he deliver him all the accounts and other papers of his Dubash which may be of service in the proof of his Investments, He likewise requests that experienc'd persons may be appointed to examine the five articles beforemention'd whether the remarks he has made be just or not.

SIXTHLY he further represents that in the month of April or May 1714 he promisd Cap^t. How with the consent of the said Moses to take of him one thousand pagodas at Respondentia on the Grantham Commanded by Cap^t. Collet at the rate of Twelve shillings and Sixpence for a pagoda, and as that ship was upon her departure in the month of July of the same year, and Moses being then at the Mines, He was oblig'd in order to execute his agreement with Cap^t. How to make up a bulse of four stones which he took from a parcel Moses had sent him amounting to Pag^s. One thousand and five and consign'd it to Peter Deharre upon whom he drew a bill of exchange for Six hundred Twenty five pound Sterling which he has paid out of his Stock, now as this bulse remains by him unsold thrô the bad quallity of the stones, he demands that the said Moses should pay him Three hundred and Twelve pound ten shillings, with Interest from the first of March 1715 to the day of said payment provided that he gives him an order to M^r. Peter Deharre to sell the said bulse in concert with the Freinds of Moses, and out of the produce to pay them his half.

The said representation from which the above extract is taken being read was deliver'd to M^r. Marcus Moses who was desir'd to return an answer in writing which he did at large on the 19^th. of the same month, which being read a time was appointed for both the partys to attend the Board in Person, when both the charge and answer being read S^r. Peter Dulivier desir'd the liberty of making his reply in writing, as not being so perfectly Master of the English Language as to express himself fully and clearly off hand, his request being granted he deliver'd in his reply in writing dated June 30^th. 1718 which being read in Consultation M^r. Marcus

—FORT ST. GEORGE, JULY 1718—

Moses was orderd to attend the Board the 7th. July Sr. Peter Dulivier being then returning to Ponticherry he attended accordingly with some Evidence relating to the particular Charge of his Dubash.

After mature deliberation on the charge, the answer, [the] reply, the answers of Marcus Moses at his examination and Evidence produc'd, We determine with respect to the particulars abovemention'd as follows.

First that Marcus Moses is not obli'gd to make proof of the validity of his purchases of diamonds at the Mines in the manner requir'd, because it is a clandestine Trade in which the persons concernd run the risque of life and estate if discover'd.

Secondly that Marcus Moses is not oblig'd to deliver the mony receiv'd of his Dubash to Sr. Peter Dulivier, there being no proof made, that any part of the Fraud committed by the Dubash was during the time of Sr. Peters being concern'd with Mr. Moses the severall Witnesses examind on that head affirm that they knew nothing of the said Dubashes management before Mr. Moses being an Inhabitant of ffort St. George.

Thirdly that Mr. Moses is not oblig'd to reimburse the cost of the bulse sent Monsr. Dusault and accept the delivery of said bulse to his order, because it is contrary to the custom of Merchants and the reason of the thing for a Factor who buys by Commission to make good the loss his principall may sustain by the difference of Markets especially in the diamond Trade in which men of the best judgment are frequently mistaken as to the goodness of the commodity besides that at this time diamonds in generall are evidently dearer in India than in Europe, Sr. Peter Dulivier in his introduction strongly insinuates but without offering the least proof that Mr. Marcus Moses has charg'd the diamonds at [a] higher rate than he realy paid for them, but this charge is esteem'd by Us entirely groundless both as there is no proof offerd, and as Mr. Moses has voluntarily given his oath to the truth of his account, which is all the satisfaction the nature of the thing admitts.

Fourthly that Mr. Moses is under no obligation to give the security requird, because neither equity nor any Law that we know of can oblige him to make any satisfaction for the reasons abovemention'd.

Fifthly that Mr. Moses is not oblig'd to deliver up his Dubashes accounts for proof of his Investments if there be any such which does not appear for the reasons given under the first head, As to the five articles of diamonds valu'd without viewing them, they can be of no weight to support the charge against Mr. Moses for that reason.

Sixthly it does not appear that Mr. Moses was concern'd in the Investment made in April or May 1714 for Pags. One thousand taken up of Capt. How at Respondentia because his name is not mention'd in the Invoice, nor does it appear that Mr. Moses ever gave Sr. Peter authority to concern him in the said Invoice, besides that Marcus Moses produces Two Accts. Currt. from Sr. Peter Dulivier to himself one of which includes all the transactions from October 1713 to the 22d. November 1714 in which Sr. Peter Dulivier has not debted the said Marcus Moses for his Interest in that consignment, so that there does not appear the least proof of his being concernd therein, On the whole we acquit and discharge the said Marcus Moses from all and every part of the charge produc'd against him by the said Sr. Peter Dulivier, Given in Fort St. George this 14th. day of July 1718.

TO THE HONBLE. JOSEPH COLLET ESQR.
GOVR. &CRA. COUNCIL.

BEING orderd to give in my reasons why We came to this Port having receiv'd my dispatches from Moco for England

THE REASONS ARE VIZT.

FIRST that my dispatches from Moco being so early was not a seasonable time to put for the Cape.

SECONDLY the water at Moco is so very br[a]ckish that must run the risque of all my peoples lives if was to have put for either Don Mascareen or Mauritius, and the monsoon being set in on the Coast of Mallabar, there was no possibillity of touching there without running the risque of Ship and Cargoe.

THIRDLY standing both in need of Men & provisions having lost a great many Men by sickness and most of our people aboard down and very weak could not possibly proceed for either of the aforesaid Islands the run being so great must have undoubtedly lost most of my Men, therefore it was the opinion of my self and Officers to proceed directly for this Port of Madrass, to procure some men, water and provisions, and here to ride till it may be reasonably thought We may proceed about the Cape with safety, which is intirely for the security of our Honble. Masters estates that We are now loaden with and which should much have endangerd had We unadvisedly proceeded for the Cape. I am

His request Granted.

On reading and considering the generall Letter from the Supervisor and Council at the West Coast it appears to Us that Mr. Richard ffarmer Depty. Governr. has been guilty of a notorious breach of orders establish'd there by Our President when Supervisor of the West Coast, and also of orders sent from this Board, and also of orders sent from England by the Honble. Court of Directors, that he has been guilty of barbarous treatment to his Fellow Servants, of oppression of the Natives, and of Conspiracy with Elisha Ellill deceas'd and James Morrice against the Government of Fort St. George from whom he receiv'd his Commission of Depty. Governr.

The Genll. Lettr. from Mr. Cooke &ct. at the West Coast being read & Considerd Mr. Farmer is found Guilty of Notorious breaches of ordrs. from Engld. & ys. board.

Also of Barbarity to Messrs. Shyllinge & Garret, Of Oppression of ye. Natives & Conspiracy against this Governmt. provd as follows.

FIRST he broke the Supervisors order not to make any alteration in the Council without orders from England or Fort St. George dated July 10th. by dismissing Messrs. Shyllinge and Garret and sending them to England.

1st. in sending Messrs. Shyllinge & Garret to England, that is to say alters. ye. Council without leave or orders so to do.

SECONDLY he broke the orders from this Board in severall particulars, it is sufficient here to mention the possitive order in the 1st. paragraph of Our first letter by the George Brigantine to dispatch hither the President and a Europe ship the latter to be loaden for England.

2d. in Non-complyg. wth. our ordrs. to send the Presidt. & an Europe ship hither to be loaden for England.

THIRDLY he is guilty of a notorious breach of many orders from England particularly of four severall paragraphs Vizt. the 34th. & 48th. of the Letter ℔ the Avarrilla dated Janry. 15th. 1713, of the 50th. paragraph of the letter by the Katherine dated February 15th. 1715, and of the 29th. paragraph of the Letter by the Success dated Febry. 6th. 1716 and also of the 116th. paragraph of the Instructions sent out with Mr. Collet forbidding such barbarous Treatment of their Servants as Mr. Skingle had been guilty of towards Messrs. Griffith and Garret.

3dly. in treating Messrs. Shyllinge & Garret Inhumanely as to their persons.

FIRST the sending Messrs. Shyllinge and Garret home to England is a direct breach of the 48th. paragraph of the generall Letter by the Avarilla beforemention'd.

SECONDLY the not sending Us copys of the generall books for the year 1715 is a direct breach of repeated orders both from hence and England and particularly of the 29th. par. of the Companys Letter ℔ Success dated Febry. 6th. 1716, which is highly aggravated by their sending home the originall books without keeping a copy on the place whereby they have render'd it impossible to send Us a copy or to begin a new set of boo ks regularly.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, JULY 1718——

4thly. the charge against Messrs. Shy. & Garret suspected to be Malicious & Groundless.

FOURTHLY that there is strong reason to suspect that a great part if not the whole of the prosecution of Messrs. Shylling[e] and Garret was mallicious and groundless, one of the evidence Rawlins being confronted upon oath, besides that he swore contrary to his own hand, and it is very probable in his own cause, he having got together as is reported Ten thousand dollrs. in a few months from nothing, the other evidence Henry Baily has been heard to declare that Governr. Farmer had told him since Mr. Shyllings suspension, that if he had not swore against Mr. Shyllinge he would have sent him to England which is attested by Mr. Newcombe one of the Council and Mr. Peter Shely.

5thly. He has oppressed the Natives in the Salt Affair.

FIFTHLY he has been guilty of notorious oppression of the Natives in the salt affair as appears at large in the West Coast Consultation of the 23d. of May last which is also a direct breach of the Honble. Companys orders in the aforemention'd 34th. paragraph of the Companys Letter by the Avarrilla and 50th. paragraph in their letter by the Catherine.

6thly. He has Entred into Bonds wth. Messrs. Ellill & Morrice to stand by each other in Case of Opposition from ys. board wch. is conspiracy against this Government.

SIXTHLY he is guilty of entering into a conspiracy with Messrs. Ellill and Morrice by giving bonds interchangeably to assist each other in opposition to the authority of the Presidency of ffort St. George in case they or any of them should be calld to an account for their manner of treating Messrs. Shyllinge and Garret notwithstanding that the said Richard ffarmer had receivd his Commission to be Depty. Governr. of the West Coast from the Presidency of Fort St. George solely.

For these reasons (tho more might be added) Mr. Farmer is suspended & what Mr. Cooke has done in relation thereto is Confirmed.

To These We might add a great number of other Fa[cts] but these already recited are so heinous in their nature and the evidence so notorious that for these reasons We do suspend Mr. Richard ffarmer Depty. Governr. of the West Coast from the Honble. Companys service, and confirm the suspense of his Sallary and Allowances from the 1st. of June last made by Mr. Cooke Supervisor &cra. Council at the West Coast.

The Suspension of Morrice confirmed & he dismiss'd.

ORDER'D that the suspension of James Morrice late of Council at Marlbrô Fort by the Supervisor and Council there on the 21st. of June last for the severall facts charg'd upon him in their generall Letter to this place be confirm'd and that he be dismiss'd the Honble. Companys service.

Messrs. Farmer & Morrice [to] be ordd. hither close Prisonrs. by the first Opportunity & their Estates seiz'd into ye. Compa. poss. till Reparat: be made for Injurys they have Committed.

AGREED that by the first opportunity of writing to the West Coast Messrs. Farmer and Morrice be made close prisoners for conspiracy against this Government, and that all their effects be seiz'd into the Honble. Companys possession till their accounts can be examin'd, and full satisfaction be made to the Honble. Company and to private persons for the injurys done them.

Francis Hugonin and a third to M^rs. ffarmer which letters he deliver'd in to the Board it being agreed by the Committee that they ought to be read there. — report of the Paquet of M^r. Morrices from y^e. West Coast deliv^d. in. 3 Lett^rs. found inclosd one to M^r. Turner another to M^r. Hugonin & one to M^rs. Farmer w^ch. were dd. to y^e. Board.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, AUGUST 1718——

The sd. Lettrs. were read & ordd. to be Entred after ys. Cons. & reference being made therein to Another belongs. to Mr. Turner He is ordd. to Produce it.

The Letters were read accordingly and orderd to be enterd after this Consultation, it appearing by the letter to Mr. Turner that he had receiv'd another letter from Mr. Morris by the same ship, and by the Term roguery in the letter now read there being reason to apprehend that the said Letter might contain some scandalous reflections on the Board or perhaps discover some matters of importance, Mr. Turner was order'd to produce the said Letter.

Mr. Turner informs the Board that He has recd. 2 Lettrs. from Mr. Morrice one to himself singly & another to Messrs. Frederick, Jennings & Legg wth. himself Jointly.

Mr. Turner then inform'd the Board that he had receivd Two Letters from Mr. Morris, one directed to himself singly and the other directed to Messrs. ffrederick, Jennings, Legg and himself.

Messrs. Jennings & Legg affirm they never Saw that Letter, & demand Mr. Turners reason for Concealing it wch. he gives.

Messrs. Jennings and Legg being at the Board affirmd that Mr. Turner never had communicated any such letter to them and demanded of him his reason for concealing it from them, he reply'd he had his warrant for so doing in the other letter to himself which empowerd him to communicate or conceal it from any of the persons nam'd in the direction as he should think fit.

Mr. Turner asked if he had Comm. that Letter to Mr. Frederick, wch. wth. much ado [he] Confesses.

Mr. Turner was then ask'd whether he had communicated the letter to Mr. ffrederick which after much hesitation he acknowledg'd.

The Lettr. to Mr. Turner Singly ordd. to be Entred after ys. Cons.

ORDERD that the letter directed to Mr. Turner singly be enterd after this Consultation.

The Lettr. to Messrs. F. J. L. & T. [being lengthy Ordd. to be read next Consn.]

ORDERD that the Letter directed to Messrs. Frederick, Jennings, Legg, & Turner being very long be read the next Consultation and afterwards enterd in the Copy book of letters receiv'd.

an Intelligence carrd. on between the Chittees & Paupa Brahm. discover'd.

The President informs the Board that he had lately recd. private intelligence of a secret correspondence carry'd on between Paupa Braminy (who was cheif Dubash to the Honble. Compa. at the time of the Chittees last desertion, and was suspected to have contributed very much by his advice & assistance to that dangerous attempt, and had been for that and other crimes by order of the Board confind as a prisoner to his own house from whence he did in Augst. last make his escape to a Pellygarr at Pollum about a days Journey from hence where has resided ever since) and some of the Chittys, that on those advices he had orderd a strict watch and thereby intercepted three Letters conceald in the Scabbard of a Sword on Fryday last which letters together with the Translations the Originalls being Jentues he deliverd to the Board.

The Lettrs. that were intercepted are delivd. in.

Translates of the said Letters read & ordd. to be Entred after ys Consult ORDER'D that the Translates of the said Letters be read which was done accordingly, and they were orderd to be enter'd after this Consultation.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, AUGUST 1718—

On reading the letters it appeard that Paupa Braminy had changd his name for that Irwan Ragestry (or Preist of the God Ragestry) that one of the letters was directed to the Rev^{d}. English Padry (that is M^{r}. Long to whom the Letter was to be deliver'd) another was directed to the Nagarrum People (that is the Chittys, the Term Nagarrum expressing the difference that had between them and the Quomitys in the time of the late defection in January 1716) (the third Letter was directed to a Black man which was a term of cant for a certain Braminy namd Vincatachilum to whom the delivery of the other letters was intrusted as himself had confessd to the Presid^{t}. on examination) the purport of all the letters is the same to press the raising of mony for clearing of a debt (which on examination appear'd to be a debt of Pag^{s}. Five hundred to Dillal Cawn a Moorman, insinuating his hopes of a speedy return to Madrass with hearty imprecations for the ruin of his Enemys).

The Purport of the said Letters Expressed & Descanted on.

Upon the whole it appears that a correspondence was carried on betwen some of the Heads of the Chitty Cast, and Paupa Braminy a proscrib'd person by the mediation of the Rev^{d}. M^{r}. Charles Long the English Minister.

M^{r}. Chas. Long found to intermeddle in y^{e}. Affair of the Correspondence wth. Paupa Braminy.

ORDERD that the Rev^{d}. M^{r}. Charles Long be sent for immediately to answer such questions before the Board as the President shall think fit to put to him.

M^{r}. Long Ordered to be Sent for.

M^{r}. Long being sent for came before the Board and was first ask'd whether he kept up a correspondence with Paupa Braminy since he fled from Madrass, to which he answerd that he had had no correspondence for about Twelve months past that soon after Paupa's running away he had receivd Two Letters from him which he had answer'd but that he had no correspondence with him since, on which the President order'd Paupa's letter to be read to M^{r}. Long which is a direct answer to a Letter Paupa must have receiv'd from M^{r}. Long when the Letter was read M^{r}. Long said that he did not write any such letter as that seem'd to be an answer to, but that it was very probable he might have talkd after such a manner to his Dubash who might possibly have writ such a Letter to Paupa Braminy in his name.

M^{r}. Long Appears & is Examin'd concerng. it, & in a manner Confesses the charge prefer'd against him.

The President then ask'd M^{r}. Long where his Dubash was, he said he was run away and acknowledg['d] that he bid him begone, on which he was orderd to withdraw and the Board thought fit to adjourn this subject till the President could get some further light into the affair.

M^{r}. Long askd where his Dubash was, who reply'd He had turned him away whereupon He was ordered to withdraw.

HON^BLE^. S^R^. &C^T^.

In conformity to yo^r^. Hon^r^. &c^ts^. orders the last Consultation, We shall now give you the truest and best Account that occurrs to our memorys of the late misfortune of our Ship Success, which was as follows.—

Saturday the 20^th^. of Septem^r^. we unmoored, and took in our longboat, the Seabreeze coming in could not weigh.

Sunday the 21^st^. between Six and Seven of the Clock in the morning we weighed w^th^. the wind at Southwest, & Southwest by West, when having sett our Sails we set a pump to work, but had not water enough to wash her Decks, althô the ship had not been pump'd in severall days the pump working well and not the least corn of pepper came up w^th^. the Water, the ship being well battened, & matted all over the hold.

We stood upon a wind to the Southw^d^. till five of y^e^. clock in the afternoon being then land to & the Wind Coming to South and by West We tack'd & stood in to the landward West and by South In the Watch between eight & twelve at night, the Pumps were severall times sounded and found but five inches water. Just before twelve at night heav'd the Lead, and had 35 fathom water, at w^ch^. time sounded the Pumps, But found the Rod stopped, upon w^ch^. immediately the Carpenter went down the well, & found five foot water in the hold.

We endeavoured to set the Pumps to work but found them choak'd with Pepper, and as one of the Winches (or handles) of the Chain pump could not be fixed, (the longboat being in its way) the Captain w^th^. the advice of his Officers resolved to put the Longboat out, as well to fix that pump, and ease the ship (which began to lye down very much) Accordingly We threw the lee spare topmast, sev^{ll}. Chests &c^{t}. over board & hoisted out the Long boat, intending to lay her astern, at w^{ch}. time being then about one of the Clock

The first and Second Mates the Carpenter and Caulker having been down the well, said there was between Seven and Eight foot water in y^{e}. hold.

The Cap^{t}. being just gone aft into ^{ye}. Roundhouse hearing a great cry coming out found sev^{ll}. Seamen & Passengers had Jump'd into the Boat, & were put off; Severall that could swim leaped into the sea & swam to the Boat. The Cap^{t}. Judging by the greatness of the leake, it must have been some Butt or Hoodens end started her lying swadling with her lee Gunnhill in the Sea, & almost ungovernable by her helm, and that it was impossible to keep her up long enough to get her to the Land, quitted the ship, & got into the Boat, as we have heard since would every one else that could When in fixing our Oars & throwing out the Lumber the ship shott from us thô we could see her lights we rowing in for the land By the Starrs, at sun rise could Just see the high land, and the ship firing Guns about 2 leagues from us pretty well in wth. the land, and to the Northw^{d}. of us.

The wind favouring us we got by Eight of the Clock within a League from the Shore, when the Landwind coming off fresh, we could but very hardly keep the shore on board, edging to the Northward where we saw the ship on shore, but could not get to her, having no sail, Grapnell, water &c^{t}. and the men all spent, we were in danger of driving off to sea, had we not got hold of a Country Vessel at Anchor, when having refreshed our Selves wth. some water, and the landwind still blowing hard, we hired the said Vessel to tow us to Madrass, being there in sight of it, where we arr^{d}. Just before night got on shore, & gave the Gov^{r}. &c^{t}. an account of the misfortune. We are Having rec^d^. notice from the Secretary that it was yo^r^. Hon^rs^. &c^t^. pleasure I should deliver into y^e^. Board a Declaration of whatever I knew for a certainty touching y^e^. Circumstances of Ship Successes misfortune, I have accordingly done it as follows.

We sailed out of this road the 21^st^. of Septem^r^. about seven of the clock in y^e^. morning; sometime after twelve the same night being surprized by a greater noise than ordinary on the deck, I came up and asked Cap^t^. Graves the occasion of it; He told me the ship sprung a leake, had four or five foot water in the hold, & her pumps were choaked; I asking what he designed to do, he replyed I'll launch out my longboat, and then either by clearing my pumps or throwing over board Chests & Lumber and baling endeavour to save the Ship, but when she can swim no longer we'll save our lives in the longboat, where I think its convenient you put some cordials, bread and Cheese, or what else y^e^. think Necessary for fatiegued men under such Circumstances, or words to that purpose. I got one or two of the Sick men, who helped to hand some of these things up to y^e^. Quarterdeck, but going to look for more, I was Surprized to see the Captain & some others Jump over board towards the Longboat; I came to the Starboard side of the ship with the same Resolution, that I believe all the remaining part of the Crew that were left aboard did, Viz^t^. to reach the Boat, but saw none Venture after her but one or two who could swim the Rope that towed the long boat being cut or slip'd about the time y^e^. Captain got aboard of her. Some of us that were left on board y^e^. Ship encouraged by the Boat Swains Example Assisted him to lightⁿ. the ship by clearing the main deck, opening the fore hatch way, and as he cleared Casks of water, Arrack &cᵗ. in the Lazaretto four or five hands on the deck wᵗʰ. a tackle raised, staved & threw them overboard. I saw one Mʳ. Obry a midshipman employed for some time with a few more hands in clearing the pumps, but to no purpose, after wᶜʰ. I heard they went down the after hatch way, by the Boatswains desire, to clear and bale as well as they could. By five of the clock in yᵉ. morning, it was said we gained five inches on the Water about the same time we made a light, and as we Judged of some Ship at Anchor; We fired a Gun, increased yᵉ. numʳ. of our lights, & sounded in nineteen fathom water, and a little after in fifteen. This made us keep along shore for fear of running aground in the dark. Before Six we made Sᵗ. Thomas's mount; Our Lazaretto was pretty well Cleared, but the baleing in the after hatch way, went on but heavily; Then we Refreshed by giving some Bisket, and a glass of wine, or half a glass of Brandy to every one that would take it. We made Signalls to Country boats we met to come on board, but none would, We spread our Ensigne in the main topmast shrowds, and fired a Gun every Quarter of an hour, or oftener as long as we found any ready Cartridges. We kept a little after six a clock in nine and Seven fathom water (as I was told) sailing along Shore; Robert Richardson, being at the helm, and the Boatswain told me, he had an anchor and Cable in readyness, when occasion would offer; Betwixt seven and eight a clock the ship seemed to be going full butt ashore; They ordered him at the helm to hold her hard a port, wᶜʰ. they often repeated, & he as often reply'd he did, but she would not answer her helm, and notwithstanding some other Endeavʳˢ. that were used to prevent her going ashore, in some time more she struck aground. Then the Boatswain made a raft by lashing together the main topmast, Mizenyard, & Studdon sail booms &cᵗ. upon wᶜʰ. and two Cattamarans, we all came safely ashore, but almost naked.

I William Waters Boatswain of the ship Success do Agree to what is material wᵗʰ. relation to the Ship in the above Deposition, and further declare That after we Refreshed at Six of the Clock some of our hands were Employ'd by me down the main hatch way in hoisting upon Deck, & staving Casks &cᵗ. and baling till we struck aground, and that betwixt seven and eight of the clock, the Ships Haseholes and Scuppers were under water, and the helm was kept hard aport for a considerable time, In the interim I ordered a midshipman, and four other hands to go forward and loosen the spright sail, and set them and top them flat for wearing the Ship; likewise they hoisted the forestay sail, and halled the weather sheet to windward, but the ship would not wear, but ran ashore.

The Mayor reports his hav^{s}. detected a p^{s}. of knavery committed by the farm^{rs}. of the Measuring Duty as follows.

That whereas it is stipulated in their Cowle that the Farmer shall Receive as his due from the Seller of Grain two fanams for every Garse, and one Measure of Grain for every Pagodas worth measured out, w^{ch}. is the whole consideration allowed them for the discharge of that Office, It now appears that the said Farmers have taken of the Seller a larger Quantity of Grain, than allowed by y^{e}. Cowle for every Pagodas worth of Grain Measured, amounting (as Appears by one parcel produced before the Presid^{t}. & Mayor) to fifty ℔ Cent above the Allowance, and besides that they had taken of the Buyers two three and four to Six doodaes and sometimes a fanam as they could get for every pagodas worth delivered out, and this cheifly of the poor and needy people, both w^{ch}. are direct Violations of the Cowle. To this representation of the Mayor, The President added That He also wth. y^{e}. Mayor had Examin'd into the Fact, which was fully proved before them by Sev^{ll}. Witnesses, and at length confessed by both y^{e}. Farm^{rs}. who offered no other Excuse but this that the Surplus of Grain rec^{d}. of the Sellers, and the Cash rec^{d}. of y^{e}. Buyers was all for Charity, Tho it was fully proved that they were Extorted from y^{e}. ℔sons concerned.

That they have Extorted Rice & mony more than allow'd them by their Cowle, & thereby broke it.

The Presid^{t}. confirms the s^{d}. report, hav^{s}. been present at y^{e}. Examination.

AGREED that the aforementioned Cowle be taken from y^{e}. said Poncala Rajah Gopall, & Chatta puttee Tanna Moortee Farm^{rs}. of the Measuring Duty, and giv'n to Poncala Kistna who offers the same rent they paid for it, and a Just performance of all the particular articles, & injunctions therein mention'd.

The Sea Customer represents that during the present Scarcity and dearness of Grain, He had not Rated it at the full price, as He has sevll. times acquainted the Presidt. & this Board, who approved this proceeding, being unwilling on one hand to take off the whole duty for the present, least it should be drawn into Precedent hereafter, and on the other hand they were unwilling to discourage the Importers by being too Severe in ye. Customs, so that Grain wch. has been sold from Seventy to Eighty Pagodas ℔ Garse has been generally Rated at about fifty or fifty five. He adds, that thô this has been Approved, Yet there havr. been no Entry of it in form, He desires that the Approbation of the Board may be entred in our Consultation for his Justification.

The Sea Customs. conduct Approved, & the continuance of it desired.

FORT ST. GEORGE
OCTOR. 18TH. 1718.

Yor. most Obedt. Humble. Servant
WILLM. FITZHUGH.

To THE HONBLE. JOSEPH COLLET ESQR.
PRESIDENT & GOVR. OF FORT ST. GEORGE &CT. COUNCIL.

HONBLE. SR. &CT.

Being called upon to deliver in an Account Remains of Plate Household Goods &c^t^. under charge of y^e^. Steward to be stated accordingly in the Generall Books, I have Examin'd the whole thereof by the last list delivered into the Accomptants Office in May 1717 by the late Steward, a Copy whereof I herewith lay before your Honr. &ct. And finding severall considerable wants I shall herein state the particular

——FORT ST. GEORGE, OCTOBER 1718——

Deficiencys under the respective heads as they stand on the Generall List beforementioned; adding the best Account I can get from the Servants (who have for some years been Employed under the Steward) and others, how the s^{d}. wants have arisen, & then Desire yo^{r}. Hon^{r}. &c^{ts}. orders thereupon.

		oz^{s}.	dw^{ts}.	gr^{s}.
The first parcell of Plate is charged to weigh		1551	14	—
But it now weighs no more than		1515	3	—
The Difference	oz^{s}.	36	11	is all Waste by use since the last Weighing except one Tumbler, w^{ch}. the Servants declare to have been stolen on some Festivall day.

The next ℔'cell should Weigh	Oz^{s}.	1950	19	—
but what remains does Weigh no more than		1822	12	—
The Difference ...		128	7	—

arises as follows—

Gov^{r}. Harrison carr^{d}. w^{t}. him to England out of this parcell—

		oz^{s}.	dwt.
2 flatt Candle sticks	p^{z}.	37	12
2 Candlesticks Snuffers and Stand		40	—
2 Teaspoons		—	10
in all		78	2 which

M^{r}. Benyon knows M^{r}. Woolaston rec^{d}. an Equivalent for in plate, but y^{e}. same is no where to be found brought to Account.

Three spoons the Servants own to have lost, and say they can prove they paid M^{r}. Woollaston for the same Pag^{s}. 3. 18. They should Weigh according to proportion of the remainder 6. 18. (oz^{s}. dwt.) One spoon more p^{z}. 2. 6. (oz^{s}. dwt.) They add was stolen at a Feast at y^{e}. Garden, and in such cases they say the Pedda Naigue ought to be accountable. These being all the pieces wanting, the other part of the whole Deficiency abovementioned Viz^{t}. 41. 1. (oz^{s}. dwt.) must be waste by use since the last Weighing.

Under this head of Plate there is likewise said to be 23 oz^{s}. of Silver Valued at Pag^{s}. 15. 29. 20. in the Stewards hands, but upon Examination it apperas that M^{r}. Spackman had made use of the said Silver, and paid M^{r}. Woollaston it's aforesaid Value. Lastly the Silver Smith is charged to have in his hands 69. 2. (oz^{s}. dwt) but he Delivers in an Account of plate new made & mended since Janry 1716/17 that has reduced that Quantity of silver to oz^{s}. 62. and urges further that there is due to him for his Cooley on the aforesaid new making & mending near 20 Pag^{s}.

The next head is household Goods, in w^{ch}. there is not only a considerable want, but a good deal of what remains is become old & useless; This latter must necessarily happen by time, and serves to prove how the former Arises, for as any thing new is made to Supply deficiencys it is bro^{t}. to Account, and added to y^{e}. List, but the old and worn out, instead whereof the new is placed, not always fully wrote off. I shall mention the appearing Deficiencys as follow.

In the Secretarys office and Closet are said to be three large presses Value 40 Pagodas, which are now breaking up and making into Shelves Pidgeon holes &c^{t}. likewise one old Looking Glass Value two Pagodas formerly in this Office stands now charged to M^{r}. Emmerson, but M^{r}. Perry had the same, before the former went for Vizagapatam, and it is since broke or Lost.

One Desk covered wth. Greencloth Value Pag^{s}. 7. 18. is said to be in y^{e}. Paym^{rs}. hands, but the present Paym^{r}. neither rec^{d}. it nor knows any thing of it, but the under Paym^{r}. says he thinks M^{r}. Smart formerly had it but what became of it after his Death he knows not.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, OCTOBER 1718——

1 D[o]. Oysta & Chalinga & 5 Candlesticks Pag[s]. 4. 24
The Guzbadar carr'd away w[th]. him.

In the Cookroom there is mentioned to be a Cornmill Value 10 Pag[s]. but when the old Fort was pulld down, the Mill was broke to pieces & there remain only the two Grinding Stones.

In Kistna Cheif Pallanquin boys Godown there are Sundrys charged to a considerable Amount; The greatest deficiency among which is in the Pallanquins w[ch]. stand Charg'd thus—

2 State Pallanquins Value	Pag[s]. 80	—	—

1 old D[o]. lent one of Cap[t]. Fitzhughs people to go to Fort S[t]. David.
1 old Pallanquin not fitt for Service.
1 broken Shell of an old State Pallanquin.
2 D[o]. off from w[ch]. I have taken 34 oz[s]. of Silv[r]. the remaining Part is worth nothing Fringe for the Gov[rs]. Pallanquins.
3 Bambooz old & ordinary.

Hereby yo[r]. Hon[r]. &c[t]. will please to observe that there are only three Pallanquins fit for Service, and those only for the Gov[r]. and Second (that which is gone to Fort S[t]. David being as I am told an old fine one not worth mending) and whether y[o]. shall please to order y[e]. Rest, which can be Reckoned no better than Rubbage, the Silver being taken away, to be wrote off; and any new plain ones to be made in their Stead for Extraordinary occasions, is humbly Submitted to yo[r]. Consideration.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, OCTOBER 1718—

In the Carpenters yard there is said to be one table and one Arm'd Chair Value 3 Pag^{s}. but the present under Paym^{r}. who lives there says he never saw them, and therefore supposes they must have been worn out before his time.

Of Sundrys said to be at y^{e}. Garden house there are wanting as follows—

12 old Chairs Valued at 6 Pag^{s}. entirely worn out.
2 of 12 Sconses Valued at 10 Pag^{s}.
2 Draughts Valued at 2 D^{o}. lost.
3 painted Benches about y^{e}. Garden Value 4 Pag^{s}. worn out.
12 of 72 chairs Valued at 42 Pag^{s}.

This wth. y^{e}. other Deficiency in Chairs certainly arises from y^{e}. Supplys that are Carr^{d}. from hence to other places as they are wanted, particularly to the Gen^{ll}. Dining Room, where the most considerable Expence is, & no Chairs are charg'd to be there.

Of Sundrys said to be in the Stewards room are worn out Viz^{t}.

6 chairs Join'd Value	Pag^{s}.	3	24 —
1 old Flagg Staff		—	18 —

The next Head is that of Horse Furniture in w^{ch}. there is the greatest loss of any yet. Your Hon^{r}. &c^{t}. will see in y^{e}. Gen^{ll}. List herewth. delivered you the Severall particulars charged, the wants whereof and Condition of the remainder I shall note as follows Viz^{t}.

1 Sadle wth. a silver bridle Value 21 Pag^{s}. the Saddle some time since gone to Fort S^{t}. David, and the Bridle worth nothing but the Silver that is upon it.

1 Set of Silver chaise Harness & 1 brass D^{o}. Value 82 Pag^{s}. good for little but the Silver & brass that are upon them.

I herewth. likewise deliv^{r}. in a new List, w^{ch}. in my Humble Opinion is now y^{e}. reall Account of remains, & referr it to yo^{r}. Hon^{r}. &c^{tas}. Judgement, whether the same shall be entered in the Books as Such, or what Alterations shall be made. I likewise desire yo^{r}. Hon^{r}. &c^{ts}. Determination, whether the Estate of M^{r}. There having for some time lain in the Warehouse two Bales of Fort S^t^. David Long cloth ordinary marked JR Supposed to belong to M^r^. Raworth, w^ch^. I find upon the Comp^s^. Gen^ll^. Books are brought to their Account on the 30^th^. of April 1715 in these words.

The President represents to ye. Board the present State of Affairs with respect to ye. Country Government, that he has been for some time past as they know threatned wth. Forces from ye. Nabob, in case he would not deliver up Trivadore &ct. Villages granted by ye. Phirmaund, But that for about a fortnight past the Nabob had by some of his Agents begun privately a Treaty of peace wth. him; The first terms that were Offered, were that the Villages should be delivered into the hands of Suncah Ramah, till a Sunnod could be procured from Sied Hussenally Cawn, wch. being Rejected by the President, the Nabob proposed that ye. President should Write to him in Genll. terms to this purpose; That he had taken possession of the Villages by virtue of the Kings Grant, and that the Compa. would give orders to return the King thanks for his Bounty, and to procure a Sunnod from Sied Hussenally Cawn; If not that the Nabob was at liberty to act as He should think fitt; To wch. the Nabob was to answer that if ye. Company procured a Sunnod from Sied Hussenally Cawn it would confirm the peace between us. The Presidt. adds that ye. Sum insisted on for Presents is Two thousand Pagodas for the Nabob and one thousand Pagodas for Ducknaroy his Secretary & Prime Minister of wch. he proposes one thousd. to be paid out of the Tax levied for building the Choultrys, and the other two thousand out of Cash. The President further adds, That He has not yet return'd an Answer to this proposal, being willing first to know the Sentiments of ye. Board concerning it.

The Presidt. gives an Accot. of a Treaty of peace wth. ye. Nabob, & the terms wch. he Insists upon.

The Sum insisted on by the Nabob is 3000 Pags. 1000 whereof the Presidt. proposes to pay out of the Tax raisd. for the Choultry & the other 2000 out of Cash.

After Mature Deliberation the whole Board unanimously agreed that ye. President should accept of the Nabobs proposal, & make peace with him accordingly for the following reasons.

The prop osa l agreed to be Accepted for ye. folls. reasons.

FIRST Hereby we fully Assert our right to ye. Possession of ye. Villages by Virtue of the Kings Grant without entring into any Engagements of receding from that Right, even thô a Sunnod should not be obtained.

1st. Because we thereby Assert our right to ye. Villages wthout. promg. to recede from it tho a Sunnod should not be obtained.

SECONDLY That three years time of setled peace (as far as such a thing can be wth. ye. Moors) is hereby gained, and thereby time Sufficient for the Honble. Company to give their orders for our future Conduct.

2d. Because 3 years time of setled peace is gained & thereby time to know the Comps. resolution concerng. ye. villages.

THIRDLY We hereby Assert the Honble. Companys right to all the Grants made in the Phirmd. or by the Husbulhookums in wch. that of Dieu Island is included.

3dly. Because our right to all the Grants is likewise Asserted, ℔ticularly Dieu Island.

FOURTHLY by making peace on these terms We effectually prevent all future Demands upon us on Account of our new Fortifications on the Northside of the Town, and of our fortifying Egmore, which used to be always Esteemed a ground of Complaint, and Cause of quarrel, It also prevents all claim on Accot. of the Goods recovered out of the Wreck of ship Success, and the manner of our doing it, that is by open force, A peace being once concluded withot. any Claim on these Accounts, there can be no pretensions raised on them Hereafter.

4thly. All Demands on Accot. of the New fortifications and the Successes Wreck are thereby ℔vented.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, NOVEMBER 1718—

The Presidt. recommends this affair to be kept Secret least it should be hindred from taking Effect, and acquaints ye. board wth. ye. methods of Security wch. he has taken for ye. Garn. in Case the Moors should prove treacherous.

THE PRESIDENT then told the Gentlemen of the Board that this Negotiation required the utmost Secrecy till it was Effected ; Besides that thô he does believe the Nabob to be in earnest, yet the Moors so much Affect the mysterious conduct, that it is not to be depended on till perfected ; It being very usual for them to enter on a Treaty when they design a Surprizing blow ; He added that to prevent any danger of that kind, He had placed a Sufficient Garrison in Egmore Fort, and doubled the Guards at all the Choultrys, and that he had employed severall Spy's in the Enemys Camp, as well as in the Country round about.

The Rent^{rs}. of the New Villag^{s}. Trivadore &c^{t}. bring in y^{e}. produce thereof for one Year amo^{tg}. to Pag^{s}. 544. 17. 14 & plead the famine as the sole Occasion of that Deficiency.

Suncah Ramah &c^{t}. Renters of Trivadore &c^{t}. new Villages bring in their Accounts of the produce thereof from the 18th. of Octo^{r}. 1717 to the 17th. Octo^{r}. 1718. The Nett produce amounts to Pagodas five hundred & forty four, seventeen fanams & fourteen Cash, whereas the Rent Contracted for in y^{e}. Cowle is twelve Hundred Pagodas ℔ annum; But the reason of so great a deficiency is evident from y^{e}. great droughts of this last year, w^{ch}. rendered the Land incapable of Tillage, and destroyed y^{e}. greatest part of the Grain that was sowed.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, NOVEMBER 1718——

AGREED that the sum of Pagodas five hundred and forty four, seventeen fanams & fourteen Cash be accepted for that reason in full of the rent of those Villages for the last year, and that a Receipt be giv'n accordingly to y^e^. Renters.

Whereupon that Sum is Accepted in full of y^e^. rent thereof for y^e^. last Year.

ORDERED that the Warehousek^r^. do Summon all the Gentlemen of Council, the Sorters, and the Hon^ble^. Comp^s^. Merchants to meet the President at y^e^. Sorting Godown by six of y^e^. The Owners of the sloop, the Longboat & the Country boat which brought up Mess^rs^. Harris & Sanderson, the soldiers, and the Hon^ble^. Companys stores from Metchlapatam, having made application to us for the freight thereof, and left it to us to determine what we shall think is reasonable to be paid them for that Service, Mess^rs^. Harris and Sanderson having made no certain Agreem^t^. with them before they Embarcqued

The Own^rs^. of the Vessels that bro^t^. up the Sold^rs^. & Stores from Metch. Apply for y^e^. fre^t^. thereof.

AGREED that the Consideration thereof be deferred till the next Consultation.

The considerat thereof deferr'd till y^e^. next Consultation.

The President acquaints the Board that He has detected a piece of knavery committed by Narran the Sea Gate Dubash, w^ch^. is as follows.

Narran the Sea Gate Dubash detected in y^e^. commission of a p^s^. of knavery in the hiring the Boats that were sent to the Successes Wreck.

When there was a Necessity to send Boats to y^e^. Wreck of ship Success the said Narran was Ordered to procure some for that service who did accordingly, and told the Gunner, they could not be hired under three Pagodas ℔ day, thô he had actually at that time bargain'd with the Masters of the said boats to give no more than Seventeen Pagodas for one boat for ten days. The said Narran (not being then Suspected of a falshood) was advanced Sixty Pagodas for that Service, out of which he paid the Boatmen no more than Eighteen Pagodas; and when the boats returned from the Wreck, He told the Masters of them in y^e^. Gov^rs^. name, that as they bro^t^. no goods, and consequently were of little or no Service, He demanded back all the mony w^ch^. he had giv'n them Except Six pagod^s^. three for each Boat, and accordingly Extorted it from them, charging the Company at y^e^. same time thirty nine Pagodas as so much actually Disburs'd by him Acco^t^. y^e^. said Boats for the Service of the Wreck, when he had paid no more than Six Pagodas for y^e^. same.

The said Narran being called in was acquainted w^th^. his charge, and ask'd what he had to say in his own Vindication, He confess'd the Fact as to y^e^. Circumstances in Gen^ll^. but excepted against that particular one of having extorted mony in y^e^. Gov^rs^. name; Whereupon the Boatman was sent for to be Examined concern^g^. it, thô y^e^. s^d^. Narran had actually confess'd that very Circumstance, when the Presid^t^. Exam^d^. him singly. The Boatman appearing and being Ask'd the question, very readily confronted him therein, and related the particulars of the Fact before y^e^. Board.

The s^d^. Narran calld in & charg'd. w^th^. the same

He denies it and is confronted by an Evidence.

The Prisoner and the Evidence were then ORDERED to withdraw when the Board being thouroughly satisfied of his conviction gave Sentence as follows.

The resolution of the Board thereupon.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, NOVEMBER 1718——

That he repay the mony He Extorted, be fined 100 Pags. to ye. Choultry & Stand thrice in ye. pillory wth. 3 mo. Imprisonment.

That He should first restore the mony to the Boatmen wch. he had unjustly Extorted from them; That He should be fined the sum of one Hundred Pagodas to ye. Choultry, and continue in prison for the space of three months, during wch. time He should stand thrice in ye. Pillory, (one whole hour each time) on such particular days as the Cheif Justice of ye. Choultry should think fitt to appoint for that purpose.

The Prisoner was then called in, and the Sentence of ye. Board being read to him, He was remanded back to ye. Choultry.
